BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL DESCRIPTION

(Mary) Josephine DeCarli Cornett (1892-1977) was the granddaughter of Christiano Machado, a former whaling captain, farmer, and early caretaker for the Carmel Mission. Christiano, with the help of a local Indian woman, located the grave of Father Junipero Serra. Josephine's mother was Jessie Machado DeCarli, daughter of Christiano and Mary Josephine Machado. Josephine DeCarli was the principal of the Lincoln Elementary School in Salinas. She married Iver Cornett, manager of Tassajara Hot Springs, after she retired.

Arline Anderson lived next door, in Salinas, to Josephine DeCarli Cornett, granddaughter of Christiano Machado.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection contains papers and photographs from the Christiano Machado family as well as the family of Angelo DeCarli and Jessie Machado DeCarli. These include newspaper articles, handwritten notes and letters, wedding invitations, naturalization papers, bank checks, biographical information for Angelo DeCarli, marriage licenses, cards in remembrance of Nellie DeCarli, diplomas, receipts, and photographs of various family members. The papers span the years from 1881-1970, with the bulk falling between the years of 1881-1925. The photographs are mostly undated.

In addition, the collection contains newspaper and magazine articles about Point Lobos, the Monterey Bay School, the Carmelite Monastery, the Carmel Mission, Carmel Valley, and Father Junipero Serra, as well as items pertaining to the sainthood of Father Serra, newspaper articles
