Statement on Archival Language:

The David Allan Hubbard Library aims to describe archival materials in a way that is respectful to all communities who use, create, and are represented in our collections. However, the nature of historical materials is such that some material may represent positions, language, values, and stereotypes that are not consistent with the current values and practices at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Within our finding aids, it is possible users may encounter language that is offensive or harmful. While some language included in finding aids was written by staff, other language originates from the people and organizations that created the material. For example, folder titles are often preserved from the creators. It is standard practice not to change them and, in some cases, it provides important context about the materials. When we find problematic language created by archivists and staff we strive to update it. When we find problematic language from the original creator we will transcribe as is to preserve the context of its creation.

Biographical History

David Allan Hubbard (1928-1996) was the third president of Fuller Theological Seminary.

Hubbard was born on April 8, 1928 in Stockton, California, the son of John King Hubbard and Helena White Hubbard, both ordained Pentecostal ministers. He attended Lutheran College in Oakland for two years before transferring to Westmont College where he received his B. A. in 1949. He graduated with a B. D. from Fuller Theological Seminary in 1952 and received a Th. M. from Fuller in 1954. In 1957, he received his Ph.D. in Old Testament and Semitics from St. Andrews University, Scotland.

In 1975, Hubbard received a D. D. from John Brown University, and an L. H. D. from Rockford College; in 1985, a D.Litt. from King Sejong University in Korea; in 1990, a D. L. H. from Hope College, and an Ed. D. from Friends University; and finally in 1993, a D. D. (Hon.) from North Park College and Theological Seminary.

Hubbard was ordained as a Conservative Baptist minister in 1952, and lectured in Old Testament Studies at St. Andrews University, Scotland from 1955-1956. Hubbard joined the faculty of Westmont College, serving as Assistant Professor of Biblical Studies from 1957-1963. He was also the chairman of the Department of Biblical Studies and Philosophy from 1958-1963. Hubbard served as interim pastor at Montecito Community Church, Santa Barbara, CA, from 1960-1962. During Hubbard's third year at Westmont, Charles E. Fuller approached him regarding the possibility of becoming Fuller Seminary's third president. In January 1963, Hubbard was elected both as President and as Professor of Old Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California.

Dr. Hubbard served for thirty years as President and Professor of Old Testament at Fuller Seminary. His presidency is marked by significant changes in the Seminary's culture, including:

- In 1963, enrollment was at about 300 students; when he retired in 1993, the student body numbered almost 3,000
- In 1965, the School of Psychology and the School of World Mission (now Intercultural Studies) were instituted in 1965
- The creation of the Doctor of Ministry degree and Regional Campuses (1970s)
- The creation of the Theological Studies Program for Black and Hispanic Ministers (1970s), known in 2018, as the Pannell Center and Centro Latino programs
- "The Mission Beyond the Mission" document (1980s)

Beyond the academic arena, Hubbard's addresses and sermons have been heard in churches, seminar rooms, and over the mass media. From 1969 –1980, he was heard regularly on the International Radio Broadcast "The Joyful Sound," a successor program to Charles E. Fuller's "Old Fashioned Revival Hour." It was heard on more than 100 stations around the world.

Hubbard wrote thirty-six books, many more articles on various issues, and as dozens of entries in biblical reference dictionaries and encyclopedias. He produced commentaries such as the multi-volume series Tyndale Commentaries and The Communicator's Commentary. Hubbard also helped produce the Word Biblical Commentary series in 1982.

In 1949, David Hubbard married Ruth Doyal. They have one daughter, Mary and two grandchildren. Dr. Hubbard died on June 7, 1996.
