Statement on Archival Language:

The David Allan Hubbard Library aims to describe archival materials in a way that is respectful to all communities who use, create, and are represented in our collections. However, the nature of historical materials is such that some material may represent positions, language, values, and stereotypes that are not consistent with the current values and practices at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Within our finding aids, it is possible users may encounter language that is offensive or harmful. While some language included in finding aids was written by staff, other language originates from the people and organizations that created the material. For example, folder titles are often preserved from the creators. It is standard practice not to change them and, in some cases, it provides important context about the materials. When we find problematic language created by archivists and staff we strive to update it. When we find problematic language from the original creator we will transcribe as is to preserve the context of its creation.

Biographical History

Author of the bestselling booklet, "My Heart, Christ's Home," (1954, 2005) with over eleven million copies in print, Robert Boyd Munger (1910-2001) served as pastor at South Hollywood Presbyterian Church in Los Angeles (1936-1945), First Presbyterian Church of Berkeley, California (1945-1962), and University Presbyterian Church in Seattle (1962-1969).

During his years as professor of evangelism and church strategy at Fuller Theological Seminary (1969- 1979), Dr. Munger was a mentor to countless students. He devoted time to youth at Mount Hermon Christian Conference Center and had significant influence on the camp program. During his Fuller years, he was active at Lake Avenue Congregational Church where he was the teacher of the Disciples Sunday School Class. His other books are "What Jesus Says" (1955), and "Leading from the Heart: Lifetime Reflections on Spiritual Development" (1995).
