Statement on Archival Language:

The David Allan Hubbard Library aims to describe archival materials in a way that is respectful to all communities who use, create, and are represented in our collections. However, the nature of historical materials is such that some material may represent positions, language, values, and stereotypes that are not consistent with the current values and practices at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Within our finding aids, it is possible users may encounter language that is offensive or harmful. While some language included in finding aids was written by staff, other language originates from the people and organizations that created the material. For example, folder titles are often preserved from the creators. It is standard practice not to change them and, in some cases, it provides important context about the materials. When we find problematic language created by archivists and staff we strive to update it. When we find problematic language from the original creator we will transcribe as is to preserve the context of its creation.

Biographical History

Born in Antigo, Wisconsin in 1919, Edward John Carnell was the son of a Baptist minister. He majored in philosophy under Dr. Gordon Haddon Clark at Wheaton College receiving his B.A in 1941. He also received the degrees of Bachelor of Theology and Th.M. from Westminster Theological Seminary, in 1944, and was ordained that year into the Baptist ministry. He served as a pastor while studying at Harvard Divinity School where he received the degree of Doctor of Theology in 1948. He completed his graduate work at Boston University where he earned his Ph.D, having written his dissertation on "The Problem of Verification in Soren Kierkegaard."

After serving for three years on the faculty of Gordon College and Divinity School, Dr. Carnell began teaching apologetics and philosophy at Fuller Theological Seminary in 1948, until his death in 1967. During these years, he taught adult Sunday School classes and often preached at Lake Avenue Congregational Church where he was a member. From 1954 to 1959, he was President of Fuller Seminary.

A well-known theological author, Carnell's books include:

An Introduction to Christian Apologetics (1948);

a prize-winning volume used as a textbook in apologetics, The Theology of Reinhold Niebuhr (1950);

A Philosophy of the Christian Religion (1952);

Christian Commitment (1957);

The Case for Orthodox Theology (1959);

The Kingdom of Love and the Pride of Life (1960); and

The Burden of Soren Kierkegaard (1965).
