Statement on Archival Language:

The David Allan Hubbard Library aims to describe archival materials in a way that is respectful to all communities who use, create, and are represented in our collections. However, the nature of historical materials is such that some material may represent positions, language, values, and stereotypes that are not consistent with the current values and practices at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Within our finding aids, it is possible users may encounter language that is offensive or harmful. While some language included in finding aids was written by staff, other language originates from the people and organizations that created the material. For example, folder titles are often preserved from the creators. It is standard practice not to change them and, in some cases, it provides important context about the materials. When we find problematic language created by archivists and staff we strive to update it. When we find problematic language from the original creator we will transcribe as is to preserve the context of its creation.

Administrative History

The Bel Air Presbyterian Church in California held its first meeting in April 1956. Its organizing pastor and initial host was Reverend Louis H. Evans Jr. The church moved from the pastor's house to its permanent location in December 1960. Reverend Evans left Bel Air Presbyterian Church in 1963.

Donn Moomaw, a former American professional football player, was the senior pastor at Bel Air Presbyterian Church from 1964 to 1993. During his tenure as senior pastor, the church grew and transitioned to three services each Sunday morning. Bel Air pastoral staff from during the 1960s-1980s included: Howard F. M. Childers, Deane E. Hendricks, Robert Lazear, Jr., William (Bill) C. Norris, Jr., James (Jim) Smoke, and Kenneth Working, Jr. In 1991, the congregation dedicated the 1600-seat sanctuary. Moomaw's resignation and the 1994 earthquake led to a gap in pastoral leadership and a transition to resume worship in Evans Chapel. A contemporary Saturday evening worship service was initiated in 1998. Two years later, services expanded to include a traditional service on Sunday mornings, and contemporary services on Sunday morning and evening.

The church is known for notable attendees such as President Ronald Reagan, First Lady Nancy Reagan, Denzel Washington, and Leonardo DiCaprio. As leaders of the Reagan's "home church," the senior pastors, Moomaw and Wenning, developed close relationships with the couple. Moomaw gave the invocations at President Reagan's inaugurations as governor of California (1967, 1971) and president of the United States (1981, 1985). He also gave the invocation for President Reagan's state funeral (2004) and facilitated the private funeral service for First Lady Nancy Reagan (2016). Dr. Michael Wenning, senior pastor from 1995-2001, led President Reagan's state funeral.

Its outreach activities include partnerships with community service organizations in the Los Angeles area. Annually since 1986, the church has distributed meals at Thanksgiving. The church helped found "Imagine LA" in 2006, a program that supports families transitioning out of homelessness. During the Covid-19 pandemic lockdown, services transitioned to online and televised broadcasting over KCOP.

Scope and Content

The Bel Air Presbyterian Church Collection consists of sermon recordings in reel-to-reel and audiocassette formats. There is also a Holy Bible presented to Donn Moomaw from his congregation. Church service bulletins accompany corresponding reels in most instances. Reverend Donn Moomaw is the principal speaker. Recurring speakers include Deane Hendricks, Jim Smoke, Robert Lezear, Jr., Kenneth Working, Jr., and Howard F.M. Childers. The bulk of dates ranges from 1968-1980, with inclusive dates through 2000. Audio-visual materials are arranged in chronological order.

Additional items of interest may include a handful of audiocassette recordings related to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA). One recording is of the first FCA national conference at Estes Park, CO in 1956. Otto Graham (quarterback), Branch Rickey (executive of the Pittsburgh Pirates), and Doak Walker (halfback and kicker) participated in the event.
