Collection title: Institute History Collection

Collection number: CaSfVAD MMC 6.I

Language of material: Primarily English, some German

Physical description: 6 document boxes, 3 cartons, 1 portfolio binder; 7 linear feet

Dates: (1936-2015 inclusive, 1950-2012 bulk)

Abstract: This collection documents the history of the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco and the people, events, and organizations that contributed to its growth and development. Materials include correspondence, pamphlets, meeting minutes, event invitations, administrative documents and logs, brochures, memos, conference reports, rosters, directories, news bulletins, annual reports, and posters. The bulk of the materials date from the 1950s to the 2010s.

Creator/collector: The C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco

Access: Access is available by appointment and advance notice is required. Contact the C.G. Jung Institute to set-up an appointment.

Online access: Some items in this collection have been digitized and are available online through our library catalog. To locate online items, select the “Advanced Search” option from the KOHA catalog home page, open the “Collection” tab, and click the box next to the collection you’d like to search. You can then search each collection by keyword, subject, date, or format. Alternatively, navigate to www.sfungarchive.org.

Scope and content: This collection documents the history of the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco and the people, events, and organizations that contributed to its growth and development. Materials include correspondence, pamphlets, meeting minutes, event invitations, administrative documents and logs, brochures, memos, conference reports, rosters, directories, news bulletins, annual reports, and posters. Inclusive dates range from 1936-2015, but the bulk of the materials date from the 1950s to the 2010s.

In addition to the main collection of papers, the Archive also maintains an Institute History Reference collection. The Reference Collection contains general reference materials related to the Institute, compiled by the Archive. Materials are added regularly.

Significant topics represented in these files include: C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco; Medical Society of Analytical Psychology; Society of Jungian Analysts of Northern California; North-South Conference; Virginia Detloff Library; ARAS; Jung Journal; Public Programs; C.G. Jung Institut Zurich; The Red Book; IAAP.

Arrangement note: Materials in this collection have been re-housed from their original envelopes and albums and arranged according to topic, department, event, or publication. In cases where original order was discernible, it was preserved.

This collection contains (10) series:

Series I: Founding Documents (1948-1980)
