Creator/collector: The C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco

Access: We recommend accessing this collection in one of two ways:

1. If you are looking for a particular person, year, event, or place, we recommend that you contact the Institute Librarian or Archivist and have them conduct a search of the internal photo collection database. Once they locate the specific photo(s) you are looking for, they'll direct you to the box where the physical copy is stored.
2. If you prefer to browse the collection, the Librarian or Archivist will bring you one box at a time to view.
3. This finding aid is intended as a general guide to the photo collection and therefore does not list all individual photos. Consult the Institute Librarian or Archivist for more detailed information.

Access is available by appointment and advance notice is required. Contact the C.G. Jung Institute to set-up an appointment.

Online access: Some items in this collection have been digitized and are available online through our library catalog. To locate online items, select the "Advanced Search" option from the KOHA catalog home page, open the "Collection" tab, and click the box next to the collection you'd like to search. You can then search each collection by keyword, subject, date, or format.
