

LGBTQIA Ephemera Collection

Collection Number: GLC SUB

Extent: 5 cubic feet

Preferred Citation: [Identification of item], LGBTQIA Ephemera Collection (GLC SUB), LGBTQIA Center, San Francisco Public Library.

Provenance: Collected by library staff

Scope and Content: The collection contains published and some unpublished materials about lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, intersex, and asexual people and their interests. There are folders on different organizations and businesses, health, political activism, performing arts, education, recreational activities, etc.

The earliest item is a newspaper clipping on cross-dressing from 1907. Other early materials include newspaper articles on bar raids in 1959; Council on Religion and the Homosexual materials from the 1960s, as well as mental health articles that concern homosexuality, and materials on the Tavern Guild in Los Angeles. The largest group of materials is under Parades and includes the programs and flyers for San Francisco LGBTQIA pride celebrations. Additional pride guides can be found in the San Francisco History Center's Ephemera Collection. Of interest are a number of theater productions with all-male or all-female casts.

Arrangement: Folders are in alphabetical order by folder title.

Accretions: Additions are regularly made to this collection.
