

P-10
Sam Behrendt Collection, ca.1870-1920

Box 1

Folder #	Description
3	Buick automobile in front of California Eclectic Medical College, c. 1910-12
5	Louis Paulham's monoplane, first monoplane to fly in America—at Dominguez Field, 1910.
5H	West Lake Park
6	Glen Curtis at Dominguez Field—1910
9	Booth of Behrendt and Levy, Insurance at aeronautical exposition.
10	Picture of "The Grauman's Chinese" airplane insured by Behrendt and Levy Inc., Los Angeles.
11	Picture of "The Grauman's Chinese" airplane insured by Behrendt and Levy Inc., Los Angeles.
11A	Picture of "The Grauman's Chinese" airplane insured by Behrendt and Levy Inc., Los Angeles.
12	The second Los Angeles City Hall located on the east side of Broadway between Second and Third Streets. Erected in 1888-89.
12A	Three Photographs of above.
12C	Second Los Angeles City Hall, looking South on Broadway, 1888-89.
12D	Second Los Angeles City Hall (same as above, but later date).
12E	Two photographs of the present Los Angeles City Hall (very poor perspective)—erected 1927.
13	The old Los Angeles County Court House—corner of Spring, Court, Market and Main Streets. Erected in 1859 by Don Juan Temple and used first as a meetinghouse and market place. Stood on the site of the present city hall.
13A	Same as above—early photo, view from Fort Hill.
13B	Same as above—view from High School.
13C	Two photographs showing Courthouse and vicinity—later photo than 13B.
13D	Photograph of the old County Courthouse—showing the New County Courthouse in the distance.
13E	Six Photographs of the front view of the new County Courthouse at Broadway and Newhigh—erected in 1888.
13F	Three Photographs of the rear view of the New County Courthouse.
13G	Los Angeles County Courthouse
14	Los Angeles Post Office—build in 1898.
15	Chamber of Commerce at First and Broadway—prior to 1905.
15A	Eight Photographs of the Chamber of Commerce Building at Fourth and Broadway—built about 1905-06.
15B	A print of the new Chamber of Commerce Building at 12 th and Broadway.

- 16 7th and Olive Streets—Northeast Corner. Baltimore Hotel stood for years on this corner and a photograph of the old building is shown here. Now the sight of the Los Angeles Athletic Club.
- 17 YMCA Building—built 1888.
- 18 Photograph of Hazard's Pavilion at 5th and Olive, where the Philharmonic now stands. Replaced by the Philharmonic in 1905.
- 19 Old Downey Block
- 20 A print of the Baker Block—built 1877.
- 21 McDonald Block—First and Main Streets—1880s.
- 23 Three Photographs of The Los Angeles Times Building at First and Broadway—built in 1886. The Times was founded in 1883.
- 24 First home of The Los Angeles Examiner—at 5th and Broadway—about 1905. The Examiner was founded in 1903.
- 25 Second and Broadway—Southwest corner. The O'Melveny homestead was one this corner until the California Bank building (shown in the picture) was built—1889. Early in 1911 this was torn down and in its stead the New California Bank Building was erected.
- 25A The California Bank Building and vicinity.
- 25B The California Bank Building—Northeast from City Hall, about 1895.
- 26 Hibernian Bank Building at 5th and Spring, about 1883.
- 26A The Hiberian Bank Building and vicinity.
- 27 First National Bank Building at Second and Spring
- 28 Photograph of the L. Harris Building at 4th and Spring—one time home of Harris and Frank Clothiers.
- 29 Weil Building—first home of the Security Bank, 148 South Main Street, 1890.
- 30 Two photographs of the Temple Block with County Bank—1890.
- 31 The Freeman Building
- 32 The Potomac Building—Ville de Paris at the lower left—North Main Street, 1890.
- 32A Two photographs of the Ville De Paris (Dry Goods) located in the Potomac Block 53-55 North Main Street. Established 1874.
- 33 The Abstract Building—built 1897.
- 34 Downey Block
- 35 Title Insurance Building
- 36 Alaska Lodging House Building—replaced in 1908 by the San Fernando building—corner of 4th and Main.
- 37 Boston Store Building (J.W. Robinson's Dry Goods) 239 South Broadway—1895.
- 37A (same)
- 38 Security Building
- 40 Two Pictures of the Hollenbeck Building—home of B.F. Coulter's Dry Goods Store, Second and Spring.
- 40A Same after addition of two stories—1888.

- 41 Haas, Baruch and Company—East Side of Los Angeles Street—1889.
- 42 Three Photographs of the Southeast corner of 7th and Hill Streets.
- 43 Naud's Warehouse—Alameda Street. Built about 1878.
- 44 Temple Block—home of County Bank—1880s
- 45 Los Angeles Packing Company—East Los Angeles.
- 46 City Foundry
- 47 L. Litchenberger Carriage Manufactory—1870s
- 48 Framer's and Merchant's Bank Building—corner of Main and Commercial.
- 48A Same at an earlier date
- 49 Southeast corner of 5th and Broadway—1898.
- 50 Ten photographs of "The Round House" a feature of Lehman's Garden of Paradise, which ran through from Main Street to Spring, below 3rd Street. Later Kate Douglas Wiggin attended kindergarten here.
- 51 Horse drawn cars which appeared on Los Angeles streets in 1878. One line was running as late 1901. This car ran out on Main and Jefferson Streets to Exposition Park.
- 51A Two photographs horse drawn cars.
- 51B Photograph of horse drawn car.
- 52 Cable Cars
- 52A Cable Cars
- 54 First Hollywood car through Hill Street Tunnel—1909.
- 55 President Taft on Hollywood car--1909.
- 56 Two big trolleys that were being manufactured in the Los Angeles shops of the StreetCar Company and inset photo of a two-mule power car at Lincoln Park Avenue in March 1889.
- 57 Photograph of a carreta—earliest model of ox travel in Los Angeles. Used until Temple and Alexander imported a carriage in the middle 1940s.
- 59 Earliest California StageCoach—photo of original coach at Museum of the Native Sons—Universal City.
- 60 Three photographs of Capt. Banning driving stage with tally-ho party. Included are Mark Jones (with white holster) and Henry O'Melveny (lying on top).
- 60A Same as above.
- 62 Six photographs of the Telegraph Stage Line (Los Angeles to San Francisco) with buggies, before Lichtenberger's Carriage Manufactory, 1870s. West Side of Spring street just south of 4th Street.
- 62A Negative of the above
- 62B A letter found with photographs dated 1960
- 63 Tally-ho party—Henry Wyatt, who was manager of the old Orpheum Theater, used to take theatrical luminaries and other friends to his ranch near Arcadia with "coach and 4." The arrow points out Wyatt with a group of his guests upon arrival at his ranch. A round trip and visit meant a full day's journey in that halcyon era, 1890s.
- 63A An unidentified tally-ho party

- 64 Scene of Chinese riots, 1875. [Riot occurred in 1871.]
 65 Three Coaches (probably stage taxis waiting for fares).
 66 Tintype of a three-seated surry, loaded with young people-1890s
 67 Horse and buggy before Ben Wad's Real Estate Office in the old Philips Block, corner Spring and Franklin Streets.
 The building in this picture took the place of the first County Jail—1853-54.
 68 Photograph man leading a horse and the same subject with a two-wheeled cart in view.
 70 Photograph of a velocipede

Box 2

Folder	Description
71	Photo of five bicyclers and early type bicycles
72	Four photos of a bicycle club (late 1890s or early 1900s)
73	Group of bicyclers on Broadway, between 5 th and 6 th streets—1896.
75	Four scenes in Chinatown
76	Photograph of four Chinese children
77 –77B	Four photos of Chinese Dragon Procession
78	Photograph of an old Mission bell.
79	Looking across Plaza with church in background—1888.
80	Four Plaza Church—erected on Main Street in 1822.
80A	Same church—rear view
81	Photograph of St. Athanasius Episcopal Church, the first Protestant Church erected in Los Angeles—1864. On the in the doorway of the church.
81A	Two photos of the St. Athanasius Episcopal Church and Vicinity—each from High School.
82	Four photographs—North from Courthouse Hill, 1870. First Congregational Church.
82A	From New High Street—1867—looking North, showing the First Congregational Church.
83	One photograph of Fort Methodist Church, 1890.
83A	A print of same
83B	First Methodist Episcopal Church—6 th and Hill Street—Northeast corner.
84	Two photographs of First Presbyterian Church—corner of Second and Broadway—in the late 1870s. Jewish Synagogue in the background.
85	One photograph of Jewish Synagogue (the one seen in #84) stood on Broadway, between Second and Third—1880.
85A	Two photographs of Bnai Brith Synagogue—9 th and Hope Streets. Built in 1894.
86	Two photographs of Congregation Church—1906.

- 87 Simpson M.E. Church—otherwise known as Simpson Auditorium, now owned by the Christian Scientists. On Hope Street, back of Robinson's.
- 88 Two northeast corner of Hill and Third Streets. First Congregational Church—was Unitarian later—then Central Baptist, who sold for business.
- 89 Old St. Paul's Cathedral—destroyed to make way for the Biltmore Hotel.
- 89A Old St. Paul's from Perishing Square—early 1890s.
- 90 Three photographs of the St. Vibiana Cathedral—Second and Main Streets built in 1879.
- 90A Steroptican view of the same.
- 91 First Church of Christian Science—Alvarado Street
- 92A First Congregational Church
- 92B The Academy of Music—5th and Olive. Also known as Hazard's Pavilion, displaced in 1905 by the Philharmonic Auditorium.
- 93 First Ebell Club—Los Angeles.
- 94 Turner Hall (Turnverin)—Spring Street, next to old Lyceum (early home of Athletic Club).
- 95a-d Photographs of "La Fiesta de Los Angeles" parade, April 10, 1894 (Photos were pasted onto cards. This was the first fiesta held in Los Angeles.)
- 96 Three photographs of the Fiesta Queen. La Fiesta parades were always reviewed by the queen in her box at Fiesta Park (Pico and Grand). Mrs. Mark B. Lewis, shown here was the queen of the third Fiesta, 1896.
- 97 Four photographs of President McKinley visiting Los Angeles—Fiesta, 1901
- 98 Float of the United Commercial Travelers—Fiesta Parade, 1901.
- 99 Two photographs of the Fiesta Parade—Spring Street, north from 1st, 1903.
- 100 Photograph of the Executive Committee—La Fiesta de Flores, May 1902.
- 101 Six Photographs of Fiesta Parade booth and floats:
- 101A Three of John and Lucy (Banning) Bradbury in decorated buggy.
- 101B City Parks Float
- 101C Parks Hose #1—Winner of the first prize for best decorated Hose Wagon.
- 101D Both of Simon Maier—New City Market
- 101E (?) Los Angeles Business
- 102 Chamber of Commerce Tally-Ho. Floral Day, May 10, 1907—La Fiesta.
- 103 Nine Photographs of drawings of various floats:
- 103A Prehistoric
- 103B Cabrillo
- 103C Mission Float
- 103D Ship of State
- 103E City of Los Angeles
- 103F Los Angeles Float
- 103G Irrigation
- 103H Products
- 103I Prosperity

- 104.1 Seven prints of Chief R.J. Scott of the Los Angeles Fire Department and W.W. Kerrigan, studio manager for Mary Pickford, inspect the oldest fire engine of the Pacific Coast, owned by Mary Pickford and loaned by her to Chief Scott for the parade in which the evolution of the fire-fighting apparatus was shown during a convention in San Francisco of International Association of Fire Engineers, August 9 to 19, ?Year
- 104.2 Negative of the above described photograph
- 104A.1 Four prints of the same engine with (left to right) Sam Behrendt, Chief Scott, W.W. Kerrigan and C.C. Reed, manager of the forgery bond department of the National Security Company.
- 104A.2 Negative of above described photograph
- 104A.3 Letter concerning the above-described photograph.
- 105 Street decorated for the Centennial Celebration with banner of 38's Fire Company, Number One. This was the first volunteer Fire Company in Los Angeles—was organized April 1872 by 38 citizens. Their company was popularly known as the 38's.
- 106 Seven Los Angeles Fire Department photographs—April, 1887, Ninth and Main Streets. The first paid fire department was formed in 1885.
- 106A Small picture cut from a copy of the above.
- 108 Dan A. Moriaety as Chief
- 108A Dan A. Moriaety as Chief Engineer
- 109 Two photographs of El Palacio—adobe home of Abel and Arcadia (Bandini) Stearns, replaced by the Baker Block in 1877.
- 110 Two photographs of the summer house at the Temple Home.
- 111 Two photographs of the banana grove at the Wolfskill's
- 112 Three photographs of "Casa Lugo"—Old Los Angeles adobe.
- 113 Longstreet house on West Adams. Sign reads, "Please walk your horses on these grounds."

Box 3

Folder	Description
114	Old H.W. Hellman residence, with Timothy Mc Carthy family. November 29, 1894.
115	Teed's residence—Los Angeles. Note: M. Teed helped organize the old settlers society, "L.A. County Pioneers of Southern California."
117	The Morris adobe at North Main and Carr Lane (near Workman)—alleged to have been the headquarters of General Fremont. Another source claims the house "was probably the boarding place of General Kearny, though tradition calls it Kearny's headquarters. It is on the west side of Main Street and was built by Estevan Gonzales in 1857.
118	Would appear to be a view of #117 at a much later date.

- 119 Two photographs of Avila Adobe, still standing just off the Plaza. Here Com. Stockton made his headquarters upon final American occupation in Los Angeles. Pictures taken at different dates.
- 120 An old adobe and surroundings.
- 121 Bixby's residence. Los Angeles County, 1869.
- 123 Residence of Harry Chandler—503 North Broadway.
- 124 Residence of Mr. N. Jacoby, Mrs. C. Jacoby, and Mr. M. Jacoby.
- 125 Residence of Mr. J.M. Hale and Mr. C. Behrendt.
- 126 "The Bivouac" 1948 South Grand Avenue, home of Col. H.G. Otis.
- 127 Pierson residence—Third Street near Spring, 1880s.
- 128 Residence of H.J. Woollacott, southeast corner of Hope and 10th Streets.
- 129 Residence of Casper Cohn and family. Note: Casper Cohn was a nephew of Harris Newmark, was associated with him in the mercantile business. In 1873 he married Hulda Newmark, sister of M.A.
- 130 Residence of Leon Leob—Hill Street, between Second and Third.
- 131 Residence of Jackson A. Graves. Photo taken in 1888, just after the house was sold and moved from the corner of third and Broadway to the corner of 10th and (?).
- 132 Four photographs Home of Thos. P. McCrae, who became a secretary of Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company. Mr. McCrae was the father of Joel McCrea, the movie star.
- 133 Two photographs of the residence at Second and Fort Streets (Broadway)—O'Melveny homestead—torn down in the 1911, to make way for the California bank building.
- 134 Five photographs of 318 Broadway (north or south).
- 135 The residence of Mayor Thom, southeast corner of Third and Main Streets, about 1886. Cameron E. Thom was an early Los Angeles attorney. He arrived in Los Angeles in 1854 and played an important part in the building of the city and was the founder of Glendale. Was mayor of Los Angeles 1883-1884.
- 136 Southwest corner of 4th and Grand Avenue, looking south on Grand, 1890.
- 137A Los Angeles, corner of 7th and Flower.
- 138 Residence at 7th and Grand Avenue.
- 139 Two photographs of T.D. Stimson Residence, Figueroa and West Adams, 1893.
- 140 Bonebrake residence at Figueroa and Adams.
- 141 Corner of 5th and Olive in 1880 (photo of a drawing). R. Nadeau, owner of this tropical; residence on the sight of the Biltmore Hotel, in the 1880s, was pronounced "crazy" for squandering $20,000 on the sight of Nadeau Hotel at First and Spring Streets.

- 142 Sheriff Hummel's house, west side of San Pedro, near Third Street. One of these palms was finally planted in front of stadium, Figueroa front.
- 143 Residence of Joseph Mullaly, corner of Buena Vista and College Streets (from drawing).
- 144 Residence of Joseph Phineas Banning, Wilmington. (From drawing).
- 145 Old Adobe to the right was the home of the Leahy's. it was over 100 years old in 1873—was destroyed in 1907 by Thos. Leahy. Was situated on Alameda Street near 8th.
- 145A-C Same as above
- 146A-146Q Total of 22 photographs of residences of unidentified location and owner.
There are one of each photograph except E, N, P, and O; which have two photographs. G was dated June 22, 1917. F has been identified as the southwest corner of 4th and Hill Streets. The Mansfield and Hewitt cottages were for years a landmark on this corner. Were replaced in 1908 by the Wright and Challender Building. M was later identified as the home of Judge Silent—Adams and Figueroa.
- 147 West side of Broadway—north of Fort St, Methodist church—Hunter residence—1893. (see #83)
- 148 Temple Block, 1850 (when it was an adobe).
- 149 North from courthouse—1898.
- 151 Photograph of Pershing Square from 6th and Hill Streets, about 1885.
- 152 The Plaza about 1888.
- 153 Two on East on Third, from Bunker Hill—Old Los Angeles, 1875.
- 154 Plaza previous to 1869.
- 157 Plaza about 1880.
- 158 The Plaza with Pico House—1886.
- 159 Two of the Plaza with the Pico House and the Church of Our Lady, later than 1886.
- 160 The Plaza—with view of old adobe home of Don Vincent Lugo which later became the first home of St. Vincent's College—Los Angeles's first college. The present Loyola University is the out growth of this collage.
- 161 Old Mission—Church of Our Lady of the Angels—1886.
- 162 Pico House about 1875.
- 164 Two photographs of the Pico House from Buena Vista Hill.
- 165 Abbottsford Inn—8th and Hope Streets.
- 166 Hotel Brunswick—8th and Hill Streets, about 1886.
- 167 The Colonial Apartment Building—8th and Broadway—built by Mark Silblet Severance.
- 168 Bella Union Hotel—North Main Street, 1865.
- 169 Two Bella Union Hotel, later.
- 170 Bella Union Hotel about 1873—was changed to Clarendon and later, about 1876, to St. Charles.
- 171 St. Charles Hotel—previously Clarendon and Bella Union.
- 172 Belleview Terrace—corner of 6th and Pearl (Figueroa) Streets.

- 173 Two of the Clifton House—built 1885.
- 174 Mondonville Hotel—Roadhouse on Washington Street, near Arlington—afterwards the Army and Navy Club.
- 175 Lankershim Flats—Northwest corner of 7th and Broadway—where Bullock's now stands.
- 176 Hotel Lankershim, Southeast corner of 7th and Broadway.
- 177 Hotel Lankershim, about 1904.
- 178 Same, about 1907.
- 179 Two of the Westminster Hotel.

Box 4

Folder	Description
180	Six photographs of the Van Nuys Hotel at 4 th and Main Streets, about 1895-98.
181	Hollenbeck and Nadeau Hotels—Spring Street, looking north from Second—old courthouse in the rear.
182	Four of the Hotel Nadeau—Spring and First Streets, 1886-88.
183	Three of Nadeau after the addition of fire escapes and removal of roof over sidewalks—1900.
184	Hotel Palms—600 block on South Broadway
185	The Angeles Hotel—1901. Spring Street, south from 4 th . 4 th Street was the end of the Pasadena Line until P.E. Depot was finished.
186	Hotel Willoughby—corner of 5 th and Hill streets.
187	Two photographs of a map of California as an island.
188	Sketch of the Battle of Los Angeles—upper California, fought between the American and the Mexicans, January 9, 1847.
189	Surveyor's map of the Plaza—1856.
190	Map of the Mission Stations connected with San Gabriel.
191	Surveyor's map of the Plaza and part of the surroundings, 1855.
192	Three photographs of the key to the city of Los Angeles, California. Birds-eye-view looking south to the Pacific—1877.
193	Three birds-eye-view of Los Angeles, Wilmington and Santa Monica—1877.
194	Birds-eye-view of Los Angeles-1871.
195	Grading map of Los Angeles—January 1, 1870, showing the location of every house in town.
196	Surveyor's map for northern part of Rancho La Habre.
197	Surveyor's map—Western Empire Tract—portion of Monte Vista.
198	Surveyor's map—Sunland Villa and adjoining tracts.
199	Surveyor's map—Tract #5877

- 200 Map showing Interurban Lines of Electric and Steam Railways to the Los Angeles Resorts.
- 204 Laying the cornerstone for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Building—4th and Broadway, about 1905-6.
- 205 Veterans of the Mexican War gathering for the 4th of July Parade in 1871. Don Abel Stearns adobe to be seen in background. Picture taken before the Bella Union Hotel, 314 North Main Street.
- 206 Real estate picnic for the purpose of selling lots—Los Angeles about 1889 (acct. Mr. Douglas Adams).
- 207 Unidentified parade and celebration, 1900.
- 209 Old entrance to Agricultural Park, now Exposition Park—in 1880.
- 210A-H Twelve photographs of Central Park (also known as 6th Street Park), now known as Pershing Square, the name having been changed November 15, 1918, to honor General John J. Pershing—1890. (Additional photograph in Box 20ov)
- 211 Irrigation ditch through 6th Street Park, about 1886.
- 212 Seven photographs of Westlake Park (now called McArthur Park in honor of General Douglas McArthur).
"when Westlake Park was new—early in 1890s, the city sold such land at auction but no one bid even $0.25 an acre for the alkali hills."
- 213 Four Spring Street Entrance to "Garden of Paradise" which surrounded the old "Round House."
- 214 Cactus which stood in front of Main Street entrance to the old "Round House" which was used later as a school and kindergarten.
- 215 Two of the City Gardens—8th and San Pedro about 1880s
- 215A Washington Gardens located at Washington and Main Streets. (an amusement park).
- 216 Fountain in St. James Park.
- 217 View of Lafayette Park
- 218 Race at Exposition Park in the early 1880s
- 219 Entrance to an unidentified park.
- 220 Children on lily pads in unidentified park
- 221 Judge J.B. McFarland
- 222 Judge E.M. Ross
- 223 One photograph of Jackson A. Graves next to a plane
- 223A Two photographs of Jackson A. Graves
- 223B Mrs. Graves
- 223C Mr. and Mrs. Graves
- 224 J.E. Fishburn
- 225 E.F. Spence
- 226 Jess Stoddard
- 227 J.F. Sartori
- 228 W.C. Patterson

229	Two of Dr. Joseph Kurtz
229A	Negative of above photograph
230	Grandfather Graves
231	Maurice S. Hellman
232	H.W. O'Melveny
233	John B. Tilton (?)
234	Anson Brunson
235	Abraham Haas
236	Stephen M. White
237	J.S. Chapman
238	Two of James Eastman
239	Hall McAllister
240	Thomas B. Bishop
241	William T. Wallace
242	N. Greene Curtis
243	Judge E.W. McKinistry
244	John Garber
245	Creed Hammond
246	John Boalt
247	Photograph of a plaster cast of Ruben H. Lloyd
248	Photo of Harry Chandler of the front of a program and menu for the Testimonial Banquet given by the Chamber of Commerce for the delegates of the American Publisher's Association and honoring Mr. Chandler—Biltmore Hotel 11/11/1931.
248A	Invitation to the above described banquet
249	Capt. Emil Harris—one of Tiburcio Vasquez's captors.
250	Paul Neumann with his twin brother "Ned." Paul is on the right.
251	Group photo—City Council (year unknown)
252	Beefsteak dinner to Roscoe Arbuckle by his friend Sam Behrendt—Alexandria Hotel 2/12/1917.
253	Unidentified group—1880s
254	Unidentified group—early 1900s
255	Unidentified group—1920s (?)

Box 5

Folder	Description
256	Banquet—unidentified organization. (Photo torn in two halves).
257	Unidentified office interior with workers.
259	An outing party:
259A	Daddy Tufts, Henry O'Melveny

- 259B H.E. Graves, Billie Cardwell, Stage driver Fallows, Henry O'Melveny, James Cuzner, George C. Dickson, Casper Cohn, William H. Clark, Jackson A. Graves.
- 259C Same party of men as above, but with different background.
- 260.1-17 Three pages from an old album, with scattered pictures of unidentified people.
- 262 Photograph of early Los Angeles Police Force
- 263 "Big Bill" Treager, Eugene Biscailuz and (?)
- 264 Ranch house built by Don Juan Temple
- 265 Rancho de la Laguna
- 266 Harper Ranch
- 267 Santa Anita Rancho in the late 1870s
- 269 Temple's Rancho
- 270 John Rowland Residence, Puente, Los Angeles County.
- 271 Wolfskill orange orchard, where the old Southern Pacific depot now stands.
- 272 Two photographs of early trolley cars—1885
- 272A Los Angeles's first trolley train—1887
- 272B Early Los Angeles trolley cars
- 274 Cahuenga Valley Railroad
- 275 Three photographs of the First Central Pacific train (old "190" engine), 1869.
- 276 Southern Pacific Engine #20
- 277 Four pictures of the famous "Tehachapi Loop" where the Southern Pacific track loops over itself in the gaining elevation over the mountains separating Southern California from the San Joaquin Valley; the picture was taken in 1876 and shows the type of equipment used in the year the first railroad line was operated connecting Los Angeles and San Francisco.
- 277A Four negatives of the above photograph.
- 278 Two of the Los Angeles cable railway.
- 279 Cahuenga House Station
- 280 Two of the Station of Los Angeles and San Pedro Railway, 1869. The terminal of Southern California's first railroad stood at Alameda and Commercial Streets.
- 281 Five photographs of the old Arcade Depot which was built on the Wolfskill property, 1888 or 90.
- 282 Three of Spring Street School—site of Spring and Broadway Arcade. Now new site of Mercantile Arcade Building. This school was built in 1884.
- 283 Two photographs of different groups of children taken in front of Spring Street School in 1890.
- 284 Nine of the first Los Angeles High School, built on Pound Cake Hill in 1873. The courthouse later stood on this site.

- 285 two of the Los Angeles High School, built 1890—on Fort Hill. Was the second home of Los Angeles High School and occupied by it from 1891 to 1917.
- 286 Class of summer of 1901, taken on steps of Los Angeles High School.
- 287 Five of the State Normal School—was opened August 29, 1882 at 5th and Grand Avenue, with Chas H. Allen of San Francisco as first principal.
- 288 Los Angeles College (boarding school for girls). Established in 1885 at the corner of 5th and Olive Streets. Was later moved (1887) to structure pictures here, at 8th and Hope. The school failed and the building was bought by Abbot Kinney and named the Abbotsford Inn.
- 290 Four of St. Vincent's College—cornerstone laid 8/15/67—one 6th Street. Campus bounded by 6th, 8th, Broadway and Olive Streets. In 1883 a wing was added facing on Hill Street. In 1887 the college moved to a new building on Washington and Grand Avenue after which the building pictured was used as a Military Headquarters by General Nelson A. Miles.
- 291 Six of St. Vincent's College—Hill Street.
- 293 University of Southern California "Old College". Cornerstone laid 9/20/1884.
- 294 The Pass School—1894. Location unknown.
- 295 Unidentified school and occasion.
- 296 High School (1873), Methodist Church (1888), Assessor's Office (1885), St. Vincent's College (1875).
- 297 Photograph of unidentified street characters
- 297A Two of above
- 297B One of above
- 298 Los Angeles about 1873. South on Broadway from First Street Hill
- 299 (See Box 20ov)
- 300 Looking toward Broadway from Olive Hill, near Third Street, about 1885.
- 301 Broadway and Third Street—1890, looking west. First Congregational Church (stood at Northeast of Third and Hill Streets).
- 302 South on Broadway from 7th Street, about 1907.
- 303 North on Broadway from 6th Street (from tower of St. Vincent's College, 1887).
- 304 Two of Broadway and Third Streets—1888.
- 305 Unidentified
- 306 Three of South Broadway from various points.
- 307 One photographs North Broadway from various points—1895-early 1900s.
- 307A Three photographs same as above.
- 307B One, same as above.
- 307C One, same as above.
- 307D Two, same as above.
- 307E Three, same as above.

- 308 Looking northwest from 7th and Broadway—1907. State Normal School at left of center.
- 309 Southeast corner of 6th and Broadway. On this site the Walter P. Story Building now stands.
- 310 Another of 6th and Broadway corner.
- 311 (See Box 20ov)
- 312 Adams Street, looking west.
- 314 Aliso Street from the Baker Block—1885.
- 315 West on Aliso Street—1905.
- 316 Two of Commercial Street--1872
- 317 Hardware Store of Chas Ducommun—on north Main Street, near the Bella Union Hotel.
- 318 People's Store "Hamburger's" forerunner of the May Company—probably the Bumiller Block, its second location.
- 319 Figueroa Street
- 320 Pearl Street (Figueroa), west side, near 6th, 1898.

Box 6

Folder	Description
321	On Figueroa Street, Los Angeles
322	Bellevue Terrace, 6 th and Figueroa
323	5 th Street, looking east from Spring
324	Looking south from First Street Hill, 1890
326	Four looking east from First Street Hill. Times Building (First and Broadway) at center of the picture—1887-88.
327	Looking west on First Street, from Spring, 1886.
328	Looking east from First Street Hill, 1882.
329	West on First Street, 1900.
330	West on First Street from Broadway.
331	Broadway, looking south from near Second Street. City Hall on left.
332	North on Flower from Pico, 1897. Episcopal Church on the right.
333	Three west on 4 th Street, from Main—1887.
334	Looking north on Grand Avenue, southwest corner of 4 th and Grand, 1890.
335	7 th Street and Grand Avenue, southeast corner (?)
336	6 th and Hill Streets, present site of the Pacific Mutual Building and Pacific Finance Building.
337	Second and Hill Streets, 1890.
338	Three of fan and date palms, Hill Street near 5 th .
339	Hill Street, south from Third—1905.
340	Corner of Hill and Temple Streets, looking north. The house on the ridge was at one time the home of Mrs. Mary H. Banning.

- 341 Spring Street south from 12th Street.
 342 Looking east on Third Street, from Hill, early 1900s.
 343 Southeast from First and Hill Streets, 1888.
 344 North on Hill Street from 6th. At lower right hand is the First M.E. Church which stood on the northeast corner 6th and Hill—1910.
 345 Third and Hill—Angel's Flight, 1910—with Third Street Tunnel.
 346 Six of Main Street about 4th or 5th (early date).
 347 Three of north Main Street with old Post Office at right.
 348 Two North on Main Street from 6th.
 349 Two of north Main Street showing the Baker Block and St. Charles Hotel, 1885.
 350 South on Main Street, showing Baker Block on the left, 1882.
 351 Two of the Baker Block and vicinity, 1880.
 352 North on Main Street from First Street. Child's Opera House on the right, 1890.
 353 Two of the Downey Block 1870. Main Street, north of Temple.
 354 Two of Main Street, south from Temple Block, 1885.
 355 South on Main Street from Pico House, 1888.
 356 Third and Main Streets, looking west on Third, 1880s.
 357 Two north on Main—Temple Block.
 358 Fifth and Main Streets looking South.
 359 The Widney Building (built 1883) and vicinity—1888.
 360 4th Street west from about Spring. At upper left is the State Normal College. Just below is Hazard's Pavilion where the Philharmonic now stands.
 361 6th Street, west from Main. St. Vincent's College about center of the picture (west white fence), upper right is California State Normal School.
 362 Three looking north on Main Street from the Hotel Westminster, 4th and Main. City Hall tower at 4th and Main.
 363 Three of Main street south from 4th--1887. Hazard's Pavilion at extreme right, site of the Philharmonic Auditorium at 5th and Olive.
 364 Two of Main Street north from 4th—1887. City Hall Tower seen in center of picture.
 365 Four of 4th and Main—looking south. Westminster Hotel at right, 1880s.
 366 Same location at later date-about 1900.
 367 Two east on Third from Hill Street, with Third and Broadway intersection in center of picture. City Hall at left and Broadway Building at right.
 368 Looking south on Main Street at 7th—1914. Overell's Building lower right.
 369 North on Main from Second—1888.
 370 Main Street, corner of 5th. Residence of John N. Jones until 1900, was replaced by the Clune Theater and then by the Rosslyn Hotel. Photo taken about 1907.
 371 Corner First and Main Streets, 1908.
 372 Corner of 4th and Hill Streets, looking east on 4th.

- 373 Two of junction of Spring and Main Street, at 9th –1917.
 374 Three photographs north on Main Street, 1888.
 374A Negative of the above.
 375 Temple Block—1900.
 376 Main and Court Streets, 1890.
 377 6th and Main where the P.E. Building now stands.
 378 Corner of Main and Court Streets, 1864. Wells-Fargo Express Company.
 379 Two of the southwest corner of 12th and Main Streets—1910.
 380 Main Street, north from 6th.
 381 Panorama of Los Angeles with vicinity of 7th and Broadway in the foreground. Looking southwest—about 1904 and 1914.
 382 Hauptstrasse (Main Street) from a sketch probably by Ludwig Louis Salvatore who published a book in Prague (1872)—Flower of the Golden Land.
 383 Two of the southeast corner of 6th and Olive about 1921 and northeast corner of same streets about 1908.
 384 6th and Olive Streets looking west on 6th, 1890.
 385 Three of Olive Street, near Third, before the City Hall or First Presbyterian Church was built—1880.
 386 9th and Olive Streets about 1929.
 387 Tower over Third Street Tunnel, at top of Angel's Flight, Third and Olive Streets.
 388 Looking east on Pico from Figueroa. Hedge on left was lot of Judge O'Melveny. Corner of the right was Fred Barman's. Horace Bell lived on the southwest corner and the Kinkade ranch was on the northwest corner. Ralph and Claude Kinkade are on the load of hay. (Information from back of picture)
 389 City gardens, 8th and San Pedro. Were started in 1847. Santa Monica Railroad made its first stop out of the city at this place.
 390 West on Second from Spring Street, 1886.
 391 West on Second from Broadway—1889. Second Street cable car.
 392 Los Angeles oil wells—2nd and Lucas.
 393 West on 7th from Spring. Lankershim Hotel southeast corner of 7th and Broadway—Bullocks on northwest corner.
 394 7th Street west from Broadway, looking southwest.
 395 7th Street west from Broadway—1907, looking northwest.
 396 Two of the corner of 7th and Los Angeles Streets, 1911-1912.
 397 Looking west on 7th and 6th Streets from Witmer—1889—West Lake Park at right. Store was at 7th and Union.
 398 6th Street—1903.
 399 Corner of Olive and 5th Streets—1908-10. Looking east. Central Park (Pershing Square) on right. Alexandria Hotel, first all building at right, stands at 5th and Spring Streets.

Box 7

Folder	Description
400	Bath and Olive Streets with Catholic pro-Cathedral at right. This building was torn down to make room for the Biltmore Hotel. Large building to the left is St. Vincent's College, which stood at 6 th and Hill.
401	East on 6 th from P.E. Building—1905.
402	Five photographs looking west from corner of 6 th and Spring. M.E. Church and First Congregational Church—on diagonally opposite corners—stood at 6 th and Hill Streets. Large building at the right is State Normal College and stood at 5 th and Grand Avenue, present site of the Los Angeles Public Library. Picture was taken about 1904.
403	6 th Street looking west from Hill—1890s. M.E. Church at left, stood on the northeast corner of 6 th and Hill.
404	6 th Street , west from Main—1903.
405	Los Angeles scene—probably on Spring Street—1879.
406	Four looking up Spring Street, Los Angeles—1869 & 1875.
407	North on Spring Street from First—1884.
408	West on Temple Street, from Spring Street—1884.
409	Spring Street, north from First Street—1885.
410	Four of Spring Street north from Nadeau Hotel (First and Spring)—1887.
411	Same location as above—1888. Note the Cleveland-Thurman banner across the street. Baker Block in distance.
412	6 th and Spring Streets, showing run on old All Night and Day Bank.
413	Showing north Main Street and Spring Streets at Temple. Old Temple Block with courthouse tower (center). Nadeau Hotel at upper right.
414	Same location as above.
415	Spring Street, south from Phillips Block—Nadeau Hotel at left, the old city hall tower looming above it.
416	Between Third and 4 th on Spring (looking north, 1900). Los Angeles Business College left was located at 212 West Third Street.
417	East side of Spring Street, between First and Second, 1888.
418	Corner of Third and Spring Streets, looking north. Note Free Harbor Jubilee banner across street.
419	First and Spring Streets, about 1905-7.
420	Corner of First and Spring Streets, 1907.
421	Two of First and Spring Streets, looking south from Phillips Building, Nadeau Hotel at right—1890.
422	Two of Spring Street looking north from Third, about 1905.
423	Spring Street north from Third—about 1890.
424	Corner of 6 th and Spring Streets, with an early Ralph's Grocery Store.
425	South on Spring Street, from 7 th . Post office at right corner of 8 th , about 1905.

- 426 6th and Spring—1905-1910. Freeman Building.
- 427 Looking down on First and Spring Streets from the courthouse. Large, many-windowed building is the Nadeau Hotel, which stood on the site of the present Times Building.
- 428 Van Nuys home at southwest corner of 7th and Spring, site of the Van Nuys Building, which was built in 1912.
- 429 Bryson-Bonebreak Building at Second and Spring in the 1880s.
- 430 Spring Street south from Temple, 1890.
- 431 North from Nadeau Hotel—1890.
- 432 Huber residence, 747 South Spring Street—1890.
- 433 Temple Block junction of North Spring and Main Streets.
- 435 Main and Temple Streets—1875-80.
- 436 Third Street west from Main—1902-1903. Third Street Tunnel in background—built in 1901.
- 437 Third Street west from Main, early 1900s.
- 438 Looking west on Third Street, 1888.
- 439 From Third and Hill Streets, looking east—1875.
- 440 Looking east on Third Street, 1870. Old city hall at left.
- 441 Third Street, between Spring and Broadway—1880s.
- 444 Corner of Washington Street and Western Avenue, 1900-looking west. Stewart's Orchard, northeast corner in foreground.
- 446 Corner of Washington and Figueroa.
- 449(a-c) Three different views of Universal Studios—1916
- 449(d) Metro Studios
- 450 Three of the Ince Studio in Culver City, 9663 West Washington Boulevard.
- 451 Same as above.
- 452 Panorama of Los Angeles from First and Hill Streets.
- 453 Telegraph Hill—old courthouse at the right.
- 454 Two of the Sisters of Charity Hospital, Los Angeles.
- 455 Los Angeles from Telegraph Hill, 1875. St. Athanasius Episcopal Church (rear view). The first protestant church in Los Angeles, at right of the picture.
- 456 Panorama section of Los Angeles, showing intersection of Second and Broadway about the middle of the picture. At extreme right is the first Jewish Synagogue, which stood on Fort Street (Broadway) between Second and Third. To the left at the southeast corner of Second and Broadway is the First Presbyterian Church. St. Vibiana Cathedral is seen at the left of Presbyterian Church (stood between Second and Third on Main Street).
- 457 Corner of 5th and Grand Avenue—1890. Hazard's Pavilion at left (now Philharmonic).
- 458 Los Angeles from Fort Hill. Tower of old courthouse in distance. About 1860s.

- 459 Two of Los Angeles from Telegraph Hill.
 460 Fort Hill. Trenches, old Fort Moore ruins at left. This was afterwards the home of Mrs. Mary N. Banning. Photograph was taken about 1883.
 461 Panorama of Los Angeles, 1857.
 462 6th Street, west from Broadway—1907.
 463 5th Street looking west. Pershing Square (Central Park then) at center of picture. St. Vincent's at left, old pro-Cathedral at the right (where Biltmore now stands).
 464 Panorama of Los Angeles. Rear view of Hazard's Pavilion at lower right.
 465 First Los Angeles High School which stood on Pound Cake Hill (at left) old courthouse at right (center), only the tower to be seen.
 466 Shows Central Park (Pershing Square) with St. Vincent's College on South
 (at 6th and Hill), Catholic pro-Cathedral at immediate front (site of Biltmore).
 467 Two looking east on Third Street. Round House in distance (stood on Main, between Third and Fourth Streets).
 468 Looking south from city hall tower, about 1890. Third and Main Streets in the foreground.
 469 Two looking east with Abel Stearn's home on the left (north Main) 1859, replaced in 1877 by the Baker Block which is shown in #470.
 470 Six photographs same location as above about 1895.
 471 Looking toward the east from Olive Street, about Third. Building in the far distance is the Catholic Orphanage, which stands near Whittier
 Building and 7th—1890.
 472 Looking toward the east. First Presbyterian Church and the first Jewish Synagogue about center of the picture, (stood between Second and Third on Broadway). Towers on the old Baker Block show at extreme left.
 473 Looking southeast with the State Normal College at the extreme left.
 474 Seven west on 5th Street. Hazard's Pavilion at upper left.
 475 Early picture of Los Angeles—from the High School, looking southwest, showing Fort (Broadway) and Spring Streets, 1867. St. Vincent's College in the distance.
 476 Looking southeast—showing Fort Street. Old Round House in the distance.
 477 Looking west from Los Angeles River. In the distance can be seen (right of center) second Los Angeles High School; (left of center) County Courthouse. Picture taken looking west from Los Angeles River.
 478 Looking east on Third Street, with City Hall at left (on Broadway). Large building is the Stimson Block (northeast corner of Spring and Third). Just above the tower of this building, at skyline, can be seen the Catholic Orphanage, which still stands (1947). The Beaudry Building is seen at the corner of Third and Broadway.
 479 Two photographs of Los Angeles from the south—1860s. Old Courthouse can be seen in the center of the picture.

- 480 Tow of Los Angeles from the Road to San Gabriel.
 481 Two of Los Angeles as a pueblo. From Foot Hills looking east—1854. A copy of the first view ever made (by U.S. survey).
 481A Two of the above.
 482 Southwest from about 7th and Broadway—1907.
 483 Looking east from Spring Street, St. Vibiana's Cathedral (faces Main, between Second and Third) at right—1890.
 484 Los Angeles from Huntington Building, 1904. Hazard's Pavilion at extreme left—stood at 5th and Olive—present sight of Philharmonic.

Box 8

Folder	Description
485	Looking northeast from about 4 th Street. At right the towers of the old Baker Block can be seen. It stood on North Main, about 1900-1906.
486	East from 7 th and Broadway—1907.
487-487E	Six of downtown Los Angeles about 1917-1918.
491	Los Angeles about 1873. Photograph of drawing.
489	View looking north and northeast from tower of State Normal College, and a view looking east and southeast from same location.
490	Two photographs of drawings with titles in German—translated "Upper Part of Los Angeles" and "Northern part of Los Angeles."
492	Sonoratown, from Fort Hill—1887. Note cemetery in the distance, right.
493	South on Spring Street.
494.1-11	Total of 12 photographs of Los Angeles and vicinity. Locations unidentified.
494A	Probably Child's Opera House, also known as "Grand Opera House." Was on Main near First Street. Opened in 1884.
495	North Main Street—1870s. Showing Bella Union Hotel (later the Clarendon and then the St. Charles) above the building at the left.
497	Northwest corner of 6 th and Spring Street—1906. Freeman Building razed to make room for Trust and Savings Building, which was completed in 1911.
499	Bryson Block, 145 South Spring Street, northwest corner of Second and Spring.
500	Between 6 th and 7 th on Hill Street.
501	Looking north on Main Street from 400 block south.
502	Third and Spring. Round building is the old Panorama Building where the Hippodrome later stood—late 1880s. Southern Pacific depot on left.
503	Witnessing a vigilante hanging in Los Angeles. (Corner of Temple and Newhigh Streets).
504	On Toberman Street, Los Angeles—looking south from 16 th .

- 505 This was the old water wheel on the Leahy place—Alameda, near 8th Street.
- 506 Items from Coronel Collection.
- 507 Three of Downey Avenue Viaduct in the 1880s.
- 508 Three of construction work on the Central Pacific Railroad, 1868.
- 509 South Pacific Engine #90.
- 510 Train and station of the Los Angeles and San Pedro Railroad--1869.
- 511 Trains and cars unidentified.
- 511A Same as above.
- 512 Two early photograph of Bakersfield.
- 513 Plan of early Burbank.
- 514 Burbank in the 1880s.
- 515 Osprey's nest on top of pinnacle in the cove, Catalina Island. 1891.
- 516 Five photographs of Avalon Bay and settlement at various dates.
- 517 Glendale in the early 1880s.
- 519 Northeast corner of Hollywood Boulevard and Western Avenue, about 1905. Wakeman orchard.
- 524 An early picnic on Mount Hollywood.
- 525 Sunset and Gower, Hollywood.
- 526 Sunset Boulevard.
- 528 Grand Boulevard, Hollywood, on the line of the Los Angeles Pacific Railroad.
- 530 Street scene in winter, Hollywood. Hollywood Boulevard at Cahuenga, about 1903.
- 531 Photograph of a handbill advertising lots in the "Holly Tract."
- 532 Paul de Longpre home in Hollywood.
- 532A Same as above.
- 533 Paul de Longpre Gallery in Hollywood—1908.
- 534 Early photograph of Hollywood.
- 534A Two early photographs of Hollywood.
- 535 Six photographs of Laguna Beach printed on one card—1920s.
- 536 Lankershim Boulevard—1910.
- 537 On the sand at Long Beach (a print).
- 539 View of Pier Avenue, Ocean Park. On the line of the Los Angeles railroad—early 1900s.
- 540 Euclid Avenue, Ontario.
- 541 El Molino, the Old Mill, South Pasadena—1880s.
- 542 Picking flowers at Pasadena with the snow 8 feet deep on Mount Wilson.
- 543 18 sub-postcards of Pasadena, most of them of the Rose Parade about 1903 pre 1904.
- 544 Two of Pasadena (early).
- 545 Pasadena at the beginning.
- 546 Two views of Hotel Greene, Pasadena.
- 547 Hotel Raymond.

- 548 Redondo Hotel, Redondo, California, 1890.
 549 Ball Room in Redondo Hotel—Admission Day, 1891.

Box 9

Folder	Description
550	San Bernardino in 1873, with the San Bernardino Mountains showing in the background.
552	Old San Diego Mission.
553	Ramona's Marriage Place, Old Town, San Diego.
554	San Diego in 1890.
555	A view of the Hotel Del Coronado.
556	Glen Curtis landing the first hydroplane, 1910.
558	San Fernando Mission.
559	South entrance to the San Fernando Tunnel, San Pedro Railroad.
560	San Fernando Valley when it was one great grain field.
561	House in San Gabriel (photo of drawing).
562	Two views of San Gabriel Mission—founded in 1771.
562A	Interior view of San Gabriel Mission.
563	Photo of Jacinta Serrano, 90 years old, basket maker who lived at the San Gabriel Mission in the early days.
564	The old Howard Home in San Gabriel, said to have been older than San Gabriel Mission. The Purcells who lived there bought the place from the Howards in 1880. The Howards bought it from Henry Dalton—Henry Dalton from Mr. Hildreth who bought the place as confiscated property from the Spanish government.
565	Four views of Mission San Juan Capistrano.
566	Picture of Father Serra's chair, brought to San Juan Capistrano in 1776.
567	Academy of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, San Luis Obispo.
568	Two view of Wilmington Harbor (probably taken from stereotypical picture).
570	Early photograph of Los Angeles Harbor with Dead Man's Island in the distance.
571	Three photographs of the drum barracks at Wilmington. Government camel in the foreground.
572	Photograph of San Pedro Harbor.
572A	Photograph of San Pedro Harbor.
572B	Photograph of San Pedro Harbor.
573	Santa Barbara, 1873 (Photo of a drawing).
574	Santa Barbara Mission, founded in 1786 (picture about 1891).
575	State Street looking north, Santa Barbara.
576	Menu from the Potter Hotel—Friday, February 19, 1909—with picture of Bougainvillea Vine, which was on the ground of the hotel.

- 577 Two photographs of early drawings of Santa Monica.
- 578 Two photographs Hotel Santa Monica in the 1880s. The first hotel in Santa Monica on Ocean Avenue.
- 579 Three photographs of Santa Monica beach and bathhouse, probably late 1800s.
- 579A Photograph of Santa Monica beach and bathhouse, probably late 1800s.
- 579B Photograph of Santa Monica beach and bathhouse, probably late 1800s.
- 579C Two Photograph of Santa Monica beach and bathhouse, probably late 1800s.
- 579D Photograph of Santa Monica beach and bathhouse, probably late 1800s.
- 580 Six photographs of the Arcadia Hotel in Santa Monica, taken from different perspectives. This hotel was the center of social activities during the "Grey Nineties" (1890s).
- 581 Santa Monica, looking south from Wilshire Boulevard. Foreground is the sight of Beach Clubs—Arcadia Hotel in the distance—1895.
- 582 Depot of Los Angeles and Independence Railroad—1888. Built by Senator Jones, to run to Independence, Owen's Valley, from Santa Monica, by way of Los Angeles. Road was purchased by Southern Pacific.
- 583 Two of eucalyptus grove in Santa Monica.
- 584 Picture of Santa Monica in the 1870s. Selling lots.
- 586 Two unidentified photographs probably of Santa Monica.
- 587 On the lawn, Sierra Madre Villa.
- 588 Ventura Mission.
- 588A Santa Clara Mission—established 1777.
- 589 Two of the last get together of "The Old Timers," 1898. The famous "Rowland—Harkness" barbecue at La Puente Rancho. Every man of prominence of that time is in the picture.
- 590 Redondo Beach (?)
- 591 North side of Washington Street at Crenshaw Boulevard—1895-1900.
- 592 Interior—probably the living room of Mr. and Mrs. L. Nathan, with much French Period furniture.
- 594 Windsor Square, Los Angeles, 1914.
- 595 A Faro game in progress in California mining town possibly Randsburg—late 1880s.
- 597 The Woodworth Home—Second and San Pedro—1880.
- 598 Bringing palm from San Pedro and Second to Southern Pacific Depot at 5th and Central Avenue—1889.
- 599 Palm Drive, Los Angeles, 1898.
- 600-600E Six photographs of unidentified locations—four showing different varieties of palm trees.
- 601 Photograph of the Ferris Hartman Curtain, which hung in the Grand Opera House.
- 602 Three photographs of the Masonic Temple, San Francisco.
- 603 Two of the Bank of California, San Francisco.

- 604 Two small photographs on a postcard of the Nevada Bank Building and Wells—Fargo Bank, San Francisco.
- 605 Miner's Exchange Bank—1856.
- 607 Two of Merchant's Exchange Building, San Francisco.
- 608 Hanford Block—1880.
- 609 Marcus C. Halwey and Company: Hardware and Agricultural Implements—1880.

Box 10

Folder	Description
610	213 to 219 Front Street, 1880.
611	Wells—Fargo Building on corner—1868.
612	Small picture of San Francisco from Baldwin House.
613	Safe Deposit Vaults, San Francisco
614	Pioneer Building, San Francisco.
615	Metropolitan Temple, San Francisco.
616	Market Street, east from Second—1876, San Francisco.
617	Unidentified San Francisco street scene.
618	Battery near Pine Street—1880.
619	View of Battery Street between Bush and Pine Streets—1880.
620	Broadway, looking west—1870, San Francisco.
621	South side of Bush Street—1880, San Francisco.
622	Two of Bush Street and Nob Hill—1879.
623	220 to 226 Bush Street—1880.
624	Old San Francisco—1872. Bush Street between Montgomery and Sansome, showing Mercantile Library Building, Brooklyn Hotel and Murphy, Grant and Company.
626	Two of the northeast corner of Sansome and California Streets—1876.
627	Two of California Street—1879.
628	Three of Fireman's Fund Insurance Building, southwest corner of California and Sansome Streets—1879.
629	Two early views of California Street.
630	North side of California Street, from Sansome, looking west.
631	North side of California Street, from the Merchant's Exchange, looking east.
632	South side of California Street, from Montgomery, looking east-- Merchant's Exchange.
633	Terminus of California Street cable railroad.
634	California Street—1876—with Stanford home.
635	Stanford residence—San Francisco.
637	Looking down Greenwich Street to Telegraph Hill, Cooper Primary School in the foreground.

- 638 Lincoln School on Fifth below Market Street.
- 639 Three photographs of Kearney Streets, August 1905.
- 640 Northwest corner of Washington and Kearney Streets, August 1905.
- 641 Market Street, east of Montgomery—July 4, 1864.
- 642 Old San Francisco—Market Street—1870. East Front Street.
- 643 Two Post, Market and Montgomery—1870, showing Masonic Temple, Hibernian Bank and Pacific Business College.
- 644 Southeast corner of Third and Market Streets, San Francisco—1876.
- 645 Market and Post Streets, snowstorm Sunday, December 31, 1882.
- 646 Burning of Bancroft Building, San Francisco, May 31, 1886. Market Street between Third and 4th Street.
- 647 Two Market Street, below 5th, San Francisco—1904.
- 648 Five prints looking west up Market Street. One taken in 1905 and two taken ten years later in 1915.
- 648A Negative of the above.
- 649 Three of the California when first completed. Market Street.
- 650 G.A.R. Arch, Market Street, between Third and 4th, 1886.
- 652 Masonic Arch on Market Street.
- 653 Photograph of statue on Market Street, "The Wine Press."
- 654 Two of Montgomery and Pacific Streets—1878.
- 655 Two Pictures of Montgomery and Market Streets July 4, 1864 and 1865.
- 656 Washington High School on Powell Street between Washington and Clay, 1865.
- 657 Stockton Street, 1865.
- 658 Second Street after the cut, 1870.
- 660 Wieland's Brewery—Second Street, near Folsom, 1880.
- 661 Northwest corner Post and Grand, 1880.
- 662 Photograph of the old Ferry Landing, foot of Market Street, 1885 to 1890.
- 662A Photograph of the old Ferry Landing, foot of Market Street, 1885 to 1890.
- 662B Photograph of the old Ferry Landing, foot of Market Street, 1885 to 1890.
- 663 Post office, San Francisco. Southwest corner of Clay and Pike (now Waverly Place) 1849.
- 664 Second Street before it was cut through in 1868. Folsom Street in the foreground.
- 665 Old post office site, northeast corner of Washington and Custom House Place, February 8, 1895.
- 666 Old City Hall—1895.
- 667 Three photographs of the Old City Hall, site of the Sand Lots.
- 668 Three photographs of the new City Hall.
- 669 Photograph of the Custom House in San Francisco (new one built after the earthquake.)
- 669A Photograph of the Custom House in San Francisco (new one built before the earthquake, 1868).
- 670 San Francisco cable cars taken during the 1870s.

670A San Francisco cable cars taken during the 1870s.
 670B San Francisco cable cars taken during the 1870s.

Box 11

Folder	Description
671.1-14	16 photographs of San Francisco's Chinatown—1880s.
671A	One picture of a Chinese grocery store.
671B	Miss Cable's class of Chinese girls.
672	Three pictures Sea lions, Seal Rock, Pacific Ocean, near Cliff House, San Francisco. About 1890.
673-673D	The Cliff House and Seal Rock.
674	Four pictures of the second Cliff House.
675	Fort Point and Golden Gate, San Francisco.
676	Bird's-eye-view of Midwinter Fair, San Francisco, 1894.
677	Golden Gate Park in the 1870s.
677A	Golden Gate Park in the 1870s, showing the Garfield Monument.
678	Three of conservatory of Golden Gate Park, one an interior.
679	Three of the children's quarters at the Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, probably in the 1870s.
680	The Presidio, San Francisco.
680A	The Almaedia at the Presidio.
681	Picture of the Plaza in San Francisco, 1864.
682	Union Square, 1896. Laying the foundation for the Dewey Monument.
683	"The Big Six"—Monumental Engine Company, Brannan Place, San Francisco, 1856.
683A	Fire Chief Sullivan leaving headquarters in his auto, 1905.
684	Emperor Norton, 1879.
685	Dining room in Lick House, 1871.
686	Six of the Baldwin Hotel, Powell and Market Streets, 1881.
687	Laying the foundation for the Dewey Monument and St. Francis Hotel.
688	View from Mason and Pine Streets, showing Hotel Pleasanton.
689	Two of Occidental Hotel, Montgomery Street, San Francisco.
690	Five photographs of the Palace Hotel Court—1881.
690A	Six photographs of Market Street with Palace Hotel.
690A.1	Six photographs of Market Street with Palace Hotel showing Lotta Fountain.
690B	Four pictures on one card: Palace Hotel, Grand Court, Palace Hotel, Grand Hotel.
691	Two of Mission Dolores, San Francisco—1879.
692	Two of the above in 1919. Note the new building at the right.
693	Three of the Mission Dolores church with new building in full view.
694	Union square with Trinity Church, Armory and Pacific Business College.

- 695 Woodward's Gardens—1880.
- 696 Two glimpses of Sutro Heights in 1880.
- 696A-696C Sutro Heights in 1880, two showing carpet gardening.
- 697 Alhambra Theater on Bush Street.
- 698 Tivoli Opera House, opened July 3rd, 1879. The House of Operatic Performances at Popular Prices. Krelling Brothers, Props.
- 699 Four photographs of the Old Cute Theater on Haight Street, 1896.

Box 12

Folder	Description
700	Warner's Cobweb Theater, exterior—showing rear of Crystal Baths.
701	Photo of a facsimile of a pass issued to those assisting in the merciful work of reliving the suffering after the San Francisco Earthquake—April 1906.
702	Improvised shelter on site of a former home, San Francisco, 1906.
703	Refugees in the bread line.
704	Bread line on Folsom Street.
705	Jefferson Square Camp refugees.
706	Refugees making the best of a trying situation.
707	Preparing coffee for refugees after the Fire of April 18, 1906.
708	Refugees keeping house among the tombstones in San Francisco cemetery after the fire of April 18-20, 1906.
709	People feeling from flames resting in Union Square. All buildings shown here were afterwards burned.
710	Relief Camp at Jefferson Square, San Francisco.
711	Moving out of San Francisco.
712	Relief Camp, San Francisco.
713	Relief Camp in St. James Park, San Jose.
714	Scene at St. Agnew's Insane Asylum, near San Jose.
715	Preparing to exist in the open air at St. Agnew's Insane Asylum, near San Jose.
716	Three of relief camp on Presidio Athletic grounds.
717.1-4	Eight total of Relief Camp at Presidio.
717A	Unidentified relief camp.
718	Two of a group of people on the steps of a church. Note woman at the right with Red Cross band on her arm.
719	Four of feeding a group of men (probably fire fighters) after the San Francisco catastrophe.
720	Two of delivering water to a group of refugees.
721.1-121	One hundred and twenty one photographs of the San Francisco earthquake and fire, April 18-20, 1906.

- 722.1-12 Twelve photographs of San Francisco streets and buildings, most taken before the catastrophe.
- 723-723G Eight photographs of San Francisco streets at various dates.
- 724 Photograph of drawing of San Francisco in 1849.
- 725 Lithograph (copy) of the above picture with buildings and ships numbered and identified. From Twenty-Five Years in California by William Heath Davis.
- 726 An old drawing of San Francisco, showing the Presidio and Telegraph Hill.
- 727 One of San Francisco Harbor (early photo).
- 728 Telegraph Hill

Box 14

Folder	Description
732	Number three in a series of reproductions, in color, of early California lithographs, published for its members by the Book Club of California—March 1938. This view of Sacramento was drawn on December 20, 1849 by George V. Cooper. In a folder containing a short history of Sacramento by Caroline Wenzel.
733	Stockton Steamer "Helen Hensley" at Stockton, California, 1865.
734	Photograph of big tree ("Lady Alice") in Balch Park, autographed to Sam Behrendt by A.C. Balch.
735	One of the first single view pictures taken of Yosemite Valley.
736	Three photographs of the Lick Observatory, Mount Hamilton.
737	Four views of Yosemite Park.
738	Mare Island Navy Yards.
739	Arch Rock, Surf Side, Santa Cruz.
740	Surf bating at Santa Cruz.
741	Carmel Mission, Monterey.
742-742G	Delmonte Hotel—grounds and club house.
743-743E	Six photographs of advertisements from a San Francisco newspaper.
744	General Andres Pico
745	Three of Governor Pio Pico, last governor of California under Mexican rule.
746	Tibercio Vasquez, the outlaw.
747	Vasquez and his captors.
748	Eualia Arrila de Perez
749	David W. Alexander
750	General Joseph Lancaster Brent
751	L.B. Benchley
752	E.M. Block
753	David Burbank
754	Frank W. Conant

755 John M. Curtis
756 Henry L. Dodge
757 E.H. Dyer
758 Chas. N. Fox
759 Mrs. Garland and Friends
760 Andrew Glassell
761 Abraham Halsey
762 Col. William Harney
763 W.H.H. Hart
764 James M. Haven
765 Marcus G. Hawley
766 Hon. Benjamin Hayes, Judge Dist. Court, 1853-1863
767 Col. Greed Haymond
768 A. Herrmann
769 Henry T. Holmes
770 Mark Hopkins
771 John L. Howard
772 J.P. Jackson
773 H.S. Keith
774 J.N. Khillip
775 F.R. King
776 William Kreling
777 M.J. MacQuarrie (?)
778 William McAfee
779 William Lawrence Merry
780 Mr. Maynard
781 John Moriarty
782 Hon. Murray Morrison, Judge Dist. Court 1868-1871
783 George C. Perkins
784 E.B. Pond
785 Ira P. Rankin
786 Gen. M.H. Sherman
787 Leland Stanford
788 Cyrus H. Street
789 I.W. Taber
790 Otto F. Von Rhein
791 Three of Stephen M. White
792 Two of Henry B. Williams
793 Stephen K. Williams
794 J.N.E. Wilson
795 W.H. Workman, Mayor of L.A. 1857-1858
796 Photograph of a painting of Don Vicente Lugo on a white
798 Isadore Dockweiler family (?) about 1905-1906
799 (See Box 20ov)

Box 15

Folder	Description
800-800.30	Thirty-one photographs of unidentified people.
801A	Fritz Kreisler
801C	Dustin Farnum
802	Picture of a dog
803-803-I	Ten Photographs of the burning of a car and immediate settlement of insurance by Fireman's Fund Insurance Company. The trip being made from the home office in San Francisco to the scene of the fire in Redbluff (200 miles away) by airplane.
804-804E	Eight photographs of unidentified locations and buildings.
805	Photograph of the U.S. flagship "Charleston."
806	Three photos (on one card) of Mission San Luis Rey.
807	Stereoscopic view of Main Street, Lead City, South Dakota.
808	Four photographs of depot at Truckee, CA—1870.
808A	One negative of the above.
809	Paso del Norte Mission near Mexican border, over 350 years old.
810	The bull engages the picador.
811	Two photographs of a bronze sculpture by Giovanni de Bologna—1608, Mercury being blown from below by a Cupid head. In the Bargello, Florence Italy.
812	Photograph of a marble sculpture, "Bacchus and young Hercules"—Uffizio Gallery, Florence.
813	Entrance to the Vatican Museum, Rome.
814	Rome—with St. Petersburg Cathedral in the distance.
815-815E	Seven unidentified paintings and sculptures.
816	Photographs of ships and boats:
816A	United States Fleet
816C	SS Navigator
816D	Model ship "Crozet."
816E	Speed boat "Lucky Strike II"
817	Five unidentified photographs:
817A	Beach scene
817B	River scene
817C	A western town (Esmeralda, Nevada)
817E	An interior—hotel lobby
820	(See Box 20ov)
822	(See Box 20ov)

Box 16

Folder	Description
1507	(See Box 18)
1508	Willie B. Furrey, 8 years old, 1882.
1521	First train from Wilmington, 1869.
1522-1532	Locomotive on dock at San Pedro
1524-1525	Number 55, first locomotive built by Central Pacific, 1872.
1525	Two Chinese working on Central Pacific
1528	Laurel Canyon Terminal
1529-1530	Early Southern Pacific Dining Car, 1870s.
1531	Hollywood Dummy Train, 1895.
1532	Three prints Southern Pacific engine #20
1532A	One negative of the above.
1533	Construction work, Central Pacific, late 1860s.
1534	Group arriving in California on Southern Pacific Lines, 1886.
1535	Workmen with locomotive and train
1536	Workmen with locomotive and train
1537	6 th and San Pedro Street Station, 1875.
1538	First electric car in Los Angeles—G.O.P. Line out Pico to Hoover Street.
1539	First electric car in Los Angeles—G.O.P. Line out Pico to Hoover Street.
1540	Los Angeles and San Pedro Railroad Station
1541	Engine on Central Pacific, late 1860s size.

Box 17

82 photos of Los Angeles, ca. 1880-1925. [Taken out from a photo album in leather 3-ring notebook.]

1291-01	Central Park (Pershing Square) looking northwest, 1885
1291-02	Pershing Square looking northwest today, 1925
1291-03	South on Hill from 6 th , 1913
1291-04	South on Hill from 6 th today, 1926
1291-05	Looking east from Olive near 3 rd , 1889
1291-06	Looking east from Olive near 3 rd today
1291-07	East on Pico from Western today
1291-08	East on Pico from Western in 1895
1291-09	Corner of 7 th & Flower looking toward Figueroa, 1899
1291-10	Seventh & Flower looking toward Figueroa today
1291-11	Main Street north from 4 th , late eighties
1291-12	Main Street north from 4 th today
1291-13	Northeast corner of 6 th & Spring, 1905
1291-14	Northeast corner of 6 th & Spring today

- 1291-15 Southeast corner of 5th & Spring, 1905
- 1291-16 Southeast corner of 6th & Spring today
- 1291-17 South on Hill from 6th Street, 1913
- 1291-18 South on Hill from 6th Street today
- 1291-19 Grand Avenue south from 4th, 1913
- 1291-19[a] Figueroa corner of Washington today
- 1291-20 Corner of 6th & Spring Streets, 1886
- 1291-21 Southwest corner of 6th & Spring Streets today
- 1291-22 Figueroa looking north from Adams, 1896
- 1291-23 Figueroa looking north from Adams today
- 1291-24 Broadway looking south from 2nd, 1895
- 1291-25 Broadway looking south from 2nd today, 1925
- 1291-26 Friday Morning Club between 9th & 10th on Figueroa, 1889
- 1291-27 Friday Morning Club today
- 1291-28 Seventh & Grand, 1904
- 1291-29 Seventh & Grand today
- 1291-30 Coulter Dry Goods Store, 1885
- 1291-31 Coulter Dry Goods Store today
- 1291-32 East side of South Hill, Site of Clark Hotel, 1911
- 1291-33 East side of Hill, between 4th & 5th today
- 1291-34 Old St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral which stood opposite Pershing Square
From the early eighties down to 1924
- 1291-35 The sight of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral today
- 1291-36 The old Southern Pacific Arcade Station at 5th & Central as it Appeared for more than 30 years
- 1291-37 The Arcade Station today
- 1291-38 Northeast corner of 6th & Hill in the middle nineties. The First Methodist Church shown here was razed only a few years ago.
- 1291-39 Northeast corner of 6th & Hill today
- 1291-40 Old Hazard's Pavilion, largest auditorium in city from eighties down
To 1906, stood at 5th & Olive
- 1291-41 Philharmonic Auditorium at 5th & Olive today, 1920s
- 1291-42 Looking north on Broadway from 10th, 1890
- 1291-43 Looking north on Broadway from 10th today
- 1291-44 North side of 5th Street at Spring, 1905
- 1291-45 North side of 5th Street at Spring today
- 1291-46 West on 6th from Olive, 1890
- 1291-47 West on 6th from Olive today
- 1291-48 Fort Street (Broadway) looking north from 3rd, early eighties
- 1291-49 Broadway north from 3rd Street today
- 1291-50 Corner of 7th & Broadway, 1906
- 1291-51 Corner of 7th & Broadway today
- 1291-52 Broadway looking south from 5th, 1905
- 1291-53 Broadway looking south from 5th today

- 1291-54 Looking north on Glendale Boulevard towards Sunset Boulevard Bridge, 1904
- 1291-55 Looking north on Glendale Boulevard towards Sunset Boulevard Bridge today
- 1291-56 East on 5th from Normal Hill, present site of Public Library, 1890
- 1291-57 East on 5th from Public Library today
- 1291-58 Looking west from near 5th & Towne, 1890
- 1291-59 Looking west from near 5th & Towne today
- 1291-60 Ninth Street east from Main, 1917
- 1291-61 Ninth Street east from Main today
- 1291-62 North on Broadway from 7th, 1906
- 1291-63 Looking north on Broadway from 7th today
- 1291-64 Looking west on 7th from Broadway, 1920
- 1291-65 West on 7th from Broadway today
- 1291-66 Broadway between 9th & 10th looking south, 1904
- 1291-67 Broadway between 9th & 10th looking south today
- 1291-68 Corner of Spring & 7th Streets, residence of J.H. Van Nuys, 1907
- 1291-69 Corner of Spring & 7th today
- 1291-70 Broadway north from 4th, 1899
- 1291-71 Broadway north from 4th today, 1926
- 1291-72 Washington at 3rd Avenue looking west, 1896
- 1291-73 Washington at 3rd Avenue looking west today
- 1291-74 Temple at Hill Streets, before Hill Street tunnel, 1908
- 1291-75 Hill Street at Temple today
- 1291-76 Main and Spring at 9th looking north, 1913
- 1291-77 Main and Spring at 9th looking north today
- 1291-78 San Pedro looking north from Washington, 1896
- 1291-79 San Pedro looking north from Washington today
- 1291-80 Looking towards Mt. Washington from the Elysian Hills, early Nineties
- 1291-81 Looking towards Mt. Washington from the Elysian Hills today

Box 18

1507 Empty leather bound photograph album with broken brass lock.

Box 19

The photographs in this box are from Sam Behrendt, but are not listed (or have not been identified) in the accession lists. For convenience and clarity, they have been identified in-house with the box number as well as the folder number (i.e. 19-4) so as not to confuse them with other photographs with the same folder number.

Folder

Description

- 1 Universal Studios—Travelling Camera
- 2 Julian Eltinge, female impersonator
- 3 Southern Pacific Depot car, "To the post office."
- 4 Los Angeles Plaza
- 5 A.L. Johnston
- 6 High School as seen from Nadeau Hotel, c1883-1886
- 7 Isadore Bernstein with Orang-a-Tan, (Universal Studios executive) c1916
- 8 Big crap game, early California
- 9 [?] Hirsch, 1914
- 10 The Sisters' Hospital, 1886
- 11 View in 1888 showing the Downey Block, the Temple Block and a general view of the growing "business downtown section."
- 12 E. Raymond Cato
- 13 Carriage, NW corner Hill and 7th
- 14 Carriage
- 15 Ivan [?] "to Uncle Sam"
- 16 Norton, Emperor
- 17 Unidentified actors on a western movie set
- 18 Unidentified portrait, 1929
- 19 Unidentified men in boxing ring
- 20 Unidentified portrait
- 21 Three Asian workers on [railroad cart?]
- 22 San Luis del Rey Mission (paper reproduction)
- 23 Unidentified portrait
- 24 Niblo, Fred with the "Fortune Hunter"
- 25 Between 3rd and 4th Streets Main – Los Angeles Street, 1888 (Panorama of the Battle of Paris)
- 26 Universal Studios "See America First"
- 27 Universal Studios "See America First"
- 28 Universal Studios – C.E. ? Director & Crew "See America First"
- 29 Universal Studios "See America First"
- 30 Universal Studios "See America First" Director & Crew
- 31 Universal Studios "See America First"
- 32 Universal Studios "See America First"
- 33 Universal Studios "See America First"
- 34 Universal City Stage. Fred Kelsey directs bar room fight scene with audience (prior to studio electric lighting)
- 35 Unidentified movie set behind the scenes, director & cast
- 36 Photography notebook
- 37 Bon Voyage Dinner Tendered To Mr. Irving G. Thalberg, General Manager, Universal City, May 5, 1921

Box 20ov

- 210E Central Park, now known as Pershing Square, 1884
- 299A-E Sections of Los Angeles, about 1869
- 311 System Auto Park at 9th & Broadway, 1920s
- 799 Group of children before the old high school at Fort (now Broadway) and Temple Streets, about 1883-4.
- 801d David Belasco?
- 820 Wolfenstein's Photographic Gallery, c. 1870. Tower of the first courthouse to be seen
- 822 Child's Orange Grove. Present site of the Chamber of Commerce
Bd. Building

The remaining photographs in this box are from Sam Behrendt, but are not listed (or have not been identified) in the accession lists. For convenience and clarity, they have been identified in-house with the box number as well as the folder number (i.e. 20-4) so as not to confuse them with other photographs with the same folder number.

- 1 Julius Brownstein dinner, 12/3/1925 [Attached to glass]
- 2 Unidentified composite portrait (Attached to glass)
- 3 Unidentified portrait, 1924
- 4 Portrait of Harry H. Zehner, Universal City, 1930
- 5 Banquet to the Pacific Coast Association of Fire Chiefs, 1920
- 6 Swanson, Gloria. John Miehle, photographer
- 7 Swanson, Gloria. John Miehle, photographer
- 8 Our Gang, autographed
- 9 (Spanky) Stonehouse, Cliffy, autographed
- 10 Nazimova, Alla
- 11 Unidentified portrait. Ruth Harriet Louise, photographer
- 12 Unidentified portrait. Ruth Harriet Louise, photographer
- 13 Todd, Thelma, autographed
- 14 Navarro, Ramon
- 15 Navarro, Ramon
- 16 Claire, Ina
- 17 Unidentified Tally-Ho group
- 18 Philips Block Building, Spring Street, 1890
- 19 Group of 12 men with bicycles
- 20 Old Los Angeles City Hall (?)
- 21 The Original IMP Company 1913-14, Universal Pictures [includes Mary Pickford and Family]
- 22 Photo of two dogs, inscribed by Geo. A. Davies, September 1914
[Attached to glass]
- 23 A dinner in honor of Behrendt..... Jan. 1918 [Attached to glass]

Oversize folders in map case 14:

Bryson and Bonebrake block, at Spring and Second Streets

L.A. skyline, September 29, 1924. Panorama photograph by H. Faute