Biographical / Historical

Shirley Mabel Cohelan Burton was born on November 16, 1924 to Adrienne Jeffrey Cohelan and George A. Cohelan in San Francisco, California. Educated in San Francisco public schools, she attended High School of Commerce and graduated from University of California at Berkeley with a degree in history. In 1953 she married Robert Edward Burton. Burton was a political activist who took part in many campaigns and held many Democratic Club offices. Chairperson positions held include California Democratic Council, San Francisco Council of Democratic Club, Sunset-Parkside Democratic Club, Democratic Volunteers for Alioto, Yerba Buena Democratic Club, and San Francisco's Democratic County Central Committee. Burton held leadership positions within Golden Gate Businesses & Civic Organization and National News Service for Women & Minorities. Parallel to her participation in political activities, Burton photographed the campaigns and events she attended in the late 1960s-1970s. By 1980 Burton established herself as a professional photographer with her business Suburban News Service and became one of the photographers of the Commonwealth Club of California speaker series. Burton photographed until her death. Shirley Mabel Cohelan Burton died on December 11, 1997 in Pacifica, California
