Historical Note:

The Multi-Cultural Center (MCC) provides programs and services that aid in the outreach and retention of under-represented students through advocacy, community-building, and co-curricular programming. The MCC is a welcoming space in the Cal Poly community that embraces diversity and works towards social justice. As part of the Cross Cultural Centers, the Multi-Cultural Center contributes to the University's commitment to diversity for a more inclusive and welcoming campus.

Scope and Content:

Photographs, primarily 4x6 color and black and white snapshots, related to Martin Luther King Jr. Day events and Black student activities on campus 1984 – 1996, Includes images of African American Student Union and Society of Black Business Students. 18 VHS videotapes of campus activities and events organized by the MultiCultural Center.

Arrangement:

The collection is arranged as a single series. Original organization of the records has been preserved where possible. Materials may have been reorganized or reboxed for preservation and access purposes.
