

Object Number	Object Name	Title Sort	Date	Description	Credit Line
95.85.1	document	Don S. Okubo	1943	U.S. Selective Service card for Hawaii for Don S. Okubo dated February 24, 1943. Addresss: 930 Kaheka Lane. To the left of Okubo's name is a rectangular box outlined in black, inside the box, stamped vertically is the Local Board Date Stamp with code.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.2	document		1942	Tan card; Notice of Classification for Don Shigeru Okubo, Order No. 3368, listed in Class 1-A. Date of Mailing for January 27, 1942. On verso, Local Board 3 is stamped and Dog Shigeru Okubo is typed alongside his address.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.3A	letter, form	Order to Report for Induction	1942	Selective Service form number 150, "Order to Report for Induction" sent to Don Shigeru Okubo for service in the Army requesting he report on February 7, 1942. Order No. 3368, dated January 27, 1942. Signed by R.M. Yamamoto, member of the Local Board No. 3, Honolulu, Hawaii. (Form letter was previously glued on construction paper back to back with another letter - see 95.85.3B)	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.3B	letter, form	Notice to Registrants	1942	Selective Service form letter, "Notice to Registrants" sent to Don Shigeru Okubo notifying him to disregard the Selective Service form 150 inducting him for service in the Army. Letter signed by the Chairman of the Oahu Local Board No. 3 and dated January 31, 1942. (Form letter previously glued on construction paper back to back with another letter - see 95.85.3A)	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.4	letter, form	Notice of Selection	1942	Selective Service Form 148, "Notice of Selection" sent to Don Shigeru Okubo notifying him that he has been selected for training and service. Letter signed by R.M. Yamamoto, member of the Local Board No. 3, Honolulu. Dated January 27, 1942. Order No. 3368.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.5	certificate	The Infantry Replacement Training Center	1944	Don Okubo's certificate from the Infantry Replacement Training Center, Camp Blanding, Florida. Trained as a rifleman for 8 weeks from February 7, 1944 to April 1, 1944.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.6	book	Sosho Book	1938-1948	Sosho book belonging to Don Okubo. Handwritten in ink in Japanese, mimeographed on sheets of paper bound with metal clasp at one end. 62 pages.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.7	dictionary	Kenkyusha's New English-Japanese Dictionary		An English to Japanese dictionary. A total of 2180 pages. Name "Don S. Okubo" written on bottom of book.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.8	dictionary	Sanseido's New Concise English-Japanese Dictionary		A green soft cover dictionary. Name "Sanseido New Concise English-Japanese Dictionary" in a 1 7/8" circle, gold embossed at top of front cover. Total of 1174 pages.	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.9	dictionary	Sanseido's New Concise Japanese-English Dictionary	1932	A green soft cover dictionary, "Sanseido's New Concise Japanese-English Dictionary" in a a 1 7/8" circle, gold embossed at top of front cover. Total of 966 pages.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.10	dictionary	Sanseido's New Concise Japanese-English Dictionary	1923	Brown soft cover dictionary with name "Sanseido's New Concise Japanese=English Dictionary in a 1 7/8" circle, gold embossed at top of front cover. Total of 966 pages.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.11	book	Strength For Service To God And Country	1942	A small, beige hard cover book, "Strength For Service To God And Country: Daily Devotional Messages for Those in the Services" edited by Chaplain Norman E. Nygaard. New York: Abingdon-Cokesbury Press, 1952.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.12	dictionary	Kanwa daijiten	1933	Red softcover book with Japanese writing embossed in gold on spine. Total 1990 pages.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.13	dictionary	Waei kijo jiten	1935-1945	Black leather cover with Japanese writing embossed in gold on spine and front. Contains color maps at beginning and text with b&w illustrations. Appears to be a dictionary with English translations next to Japanese entries. Total 716 pages.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.15	photograph		1944-1945	folder 1 of 2 of loose photos collected by Don Okubo during Military Intelligence Service (MIS) work in the Pacific. May include Japanese prisoner photos, photos taken from prisoners, etc.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.15B	photograph		1944-1945	folder 2 of 2 of loose photos collected by Don Okubo during Military Intelligence Service (MIS) work in the Pacific. May include Japanese prisoner photos, photos taken from prisoners, etc.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.16	photograph		1945	1 photographic print; b&w; 3 men in uniform on a beach, 1 Imperial Japanese Admiral, Kamada, on the left, 2 American military servicemen, Cap. H.B. Grow and Don S. Okubo on the right. Admiral Kamada and Cap. H.B. Grow stand to each other in a salute, while Okubo wears sunglasses and faces Admiral Kamada. In the background is an ocean and a shoreline. On verso, horizontally written in black ink, "Flag raising ceremony on Maloelap Atoll, Marshall Islands / Sep 10, 1945" and below "#34", vertically lower center reads, "Cap. H.B. Grow, USNR, Me, Rear Adm. Kamada / Imperial Japanese Navy"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.17	photograph		1942 - 1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Japanese and American soldiers on beach, numerous palm trees are missing palm fronds. On left foreground, 1 Japanese Imperial soldier with his military jacket draped over his arm looking into the distance with 2 American soldiers with protective headgear and firearms flanking him on the right, wreckage strewn on the beach. On background in right, 7 American soldiers with firearms surround 2 or 3 Imperial Japanese soldiers without their military jackets. On verso, center, "Beaches on Mille / Officers are being separated before questioning"; lower left corner "52".	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.18	photograph		1942	1 photographic print: b&w; 7 men in a group surrounded by vegetation and trees. 2 men, one with a pipe in his mouth and both with their faces scrunched up, right hands on their hips and one foot lifted, look at 5 Imperial Japanese soldiers. 4 soldiers sit on the vegetation, 1 in middle front holds a cigarette in his hands, all of their heads turned slightly away from the other 2 men. Written on center verso, "Paying a visit to the various mens' (sic) quarters. Lt. Vickey and the Lt. Bishop of May 13 came along with me", on lower right corner is the marking "#35".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.19	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; A large group (100 or more), of what looks like to be Japanese Imperial soldiers, congregated in a field near the ocean, palm trees in the background. In foreground, 2 American soldiers dressed in protective military attire while 4 or 5 Allied or American men wear khaki field shirts and pants in front of the large group. The Japanese Imperial soldiers are either standing and hunched over or sitting down. Written on verso, "Questioning of men, trying to identify the men who took part in the execution" and on back lower corner, "#55"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.20	photograph		1937-1950	1 photographic print: b&w; 25 Imperial Japanese soldiers stand in two or three rows in military uniforms and military caps, facing camera. On verso, "Japanese Naval Officers on Mille waiting to be questioned". On bottom lower corner, "#51".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.21	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Tent with 1 visible American military officer underneath, outside of tent, 1 US Army soldier at left with firearm strapped on back. 6 Imperial Japanese military men in unfirms standing in 1 row, facing the tent. Grass and trees in background, few men in distance. Written on verso, "Officers of Mtn. Arty unit waiting to be interrogated 23 Sept 1945", on lower bottom corner, "#48".	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.22	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 8 men sitting at a table under a tent; 5 Allied or American soldiers seated at left, one at the farthest point of table, 1 Allied or American commander to the right of the 5 men and at head of table with binoculars in front of him, and 1 Imperial Japanese soldier sitting across with his hands on his lap and straight back. On tent, behind the commander, is a clock. Written in black ink on verso, "Preliminary interrogation of Japanese atrocity at Mille, Maj Nakao of Mtn. Arty unit is being questioned. Taken on Mille 23, Sept 1945"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.23	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Men at a table under a wooden and tin structure; on left are 4 Allied or American military officers, two standing; on right are 3 Japanese Imperial Army officers, two standing. White tablecloth and potted plant at right on table. Written on verso in black ink, "Preliminary Investigation on the atrocity committed on Jaluit Atoll, Marshall Island. Major Furuki, JIA is being interrogated by our officers. I am doing the interrogating.", "10 OCT 1945" and on lower right corner, "#26"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.24	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print; b&w; U.S. and Japanese Imperial soldiers on a beach, water on right; looking towards something out of frame; Trees, grass, and structures in background.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.25	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print; b&w; Hole in ground; 2 shovels in the sand and dirt mound in center next to a bucket with human remains in it; grass around the area. Written on verso in black ink, "Remains of our pilot dug up on Mille 23 Sept 1945", on bottom left corner, "#57"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.26	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; U.S. soldiers in a grassy field with some scattered palm trees; some are sitting on jeeps, others on the ground, rest are standing; half of group in distance. Written on verso in black ink, "Looking for the place of pilot's burial 23SEPT1945" and on lower left corner, "56"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.27	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Photograph of soldier (Don Okubo) in uniform standing on gravel road in front of sign "U.S. Army Camp Savage Minnesota Keep to Right Speed 10 Limit"; in background there are 2 buildings; scalloped edges around photo print.	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.28	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Shoreline with ships, other structures and some soldiers lined up on sand; ship in foreground; water and shore; some tower at left; at right a dome-shaped metal structure. Written on verso in black ink, "Japanese landing craft destroyed at Wotje At / Marshall Island"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.29	photograph		1944	1 photographic print: b&w; Mangled metal dome shaped structure; appears to be falling apart; broken branches and other deadwood surrounding the structure. Written on verso in black ink, "Skeleton of the Japanese hangar at Pelelin, Palau", crossed out is "Wotje Atoll, Marshall Island"; on bottom right corner is "#89"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.30	photograph		1944	1 photographic print: b&w; American officer in uniform and metal hat standing next to the remains of an airplane; right arm is resting on side of plane and left arm is on his hip; he is looking into a large hole at the side of the plane. Written on verso in black ink, "9-25-44 / Japanese plane shot down on Pelelin Island, Palau"; lower right corner "#87".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.31	photograph		1944	1 photographic print: b&w; American officer in uniform and metal hat standing next to the remains of the tail end of an airplane; right hand is touching part of the tail which has Japanese writing and the number "27" in white. Written on verso in black ink, "9-25-44 / Tail of a Japanese bomber which was shot down at Pelelin, Palau"; written on lower right corner is "#88".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.32	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Men in a makeshift office; 9 men, 3 seated at right one seated at a desk, the other standing behind him, next 2 seated almost facing each other, one standing to side of them and 2 others standing closer to camera; U.S. flag in back at right; map of East and Southeast Asia on left wall, 4 maps on center wall.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.33	photograph		1937-1950	1 photographic print: b&w; Asian men under makeshift tent shelter; 4 seated on bench, 2 standing behind, one squatting in front; man seated at far left holding what looks like Korean flag; man at far right holding an American magazine; squatting man wearing white t-shirt with "IDAHO" on it. Written on verso in black ink, "Korean POW's at the orig Majuro Atoll Marshall Islands"; lower right corner, "#84".	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.34	photograph	Japanese fishing party	1942--1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Japanese prisoner's of war in swimming outfits on beach; squatting and huddled around piles of fish on sand; 9 men altogether. Written on verso in black ink, "Japanese fishing party. These Japanese are the prisoners of war who have received better accommodation in the sense of ration and housing are concern, than we ever had by our government. Taken on Majuro Atoll, Marshall Islands"; Written on lower right corner, "#82".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.35	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Room with 2 men standing in center foreground; various others seated at side and in back; some empty chairs directly behind the two standing men; man in front at right standing with his right hand raised. Written on verso in black ink, "Warrant Officer Manako Japanese Imperial Navy is being sworn in at the war criminal trial held on Kwajalein Atoll 26NOV1945"; Written on lower right corner, #76"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.36	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; In center foreground 2 men, Warrant Officer Manako on left, kneeling on ground and hands on legs facing an American officer (Don S. Okubo) who is seated in chair on right, other men seated in background. Written on verso in black ink, "War criminal trial at Kwajalein Atoll Marshall Island. Nov 21, 1945. Warrant Officer Manako IJN explaining how the American prisoner set before him calmly prior to his actual beheading. Manako also explained vividly how he swung his sword. War Crimes Court #39-3 Tech. Sgt. Don S. Okubo"; Written on lower right corner, "#78".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.37	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; In a building, 2 men in foreground seated and facing each other, left is a Korean prisoner of war facing an an American officer (Don S. Okubo); others in background seated, 2 men seated at side at a desk, man on left has his face in his hands. Written on verso in black ink, "Korean laborer, Kanemura on the witness stand at war criminal trial Kwajalein Atoll, Marshall Islands, Nov 21, 1945"; Written on lower right corner, #76"	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.38	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 2 men in foreground standing, man on left is a US Officer and has his arms by his side while the man on right is a Japanese Imperial Army (Lt. Tanaka) and has his his left hand by his side and right hand raised; chalkboard with writing in background; other men seated in background. Written on verso in black ink, "Lt. Tanaka is being sworn in by the judge at the war criminal trial held on Kwajalein Atoll, Marshall Island"; Written on lower right corner, "#79".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.39	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; U.S. and Japanese Imperial officers in building; 3 men in center foreground, 2 seated facing each other, the third standing between them showing a picture to the seated man on the left; other men seated in background. Written on verso in black ink, "Lt. Fueta identifying one of the American pilot whom his unit has executed. War Criminal Trial, Kwajalein Atoll, Marshall Island. 28NOV1945"; Written on lower right corner, "#80".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.40	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; U.S. and Japanese Imperial officers in building; in foreground a Japanese Imperial officer has his back to the camera and sits opposite of a U.S. officer, 6 other men in background, seated; desk with papers also in foreground. Written on verso in black ink, "Warrant Officer Manako on the witness stand. War Criminal Trial Kwajalein Atoll / 26 Nov 1945"; Written on lower right corner is "#77".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.41	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; U.S. and Japanese Imperial officers in building; In foreground a Korean prisoner of war with his back to the camera, faces U.S. officer (Don S. Okubo), 1 man seated at desk with books and paperwork, another crouching behind U.S. Officer Don S. Okubo; in background 6 U.S. and/or Allied judges seated at a long table facing camera, table and chairs are elevated above the other men; U.S. flag at left, another flag at right; sunlight coming from behind; man in white navy uniform standing in doorway in background. Written on verso in black ink, "Criminal Trial held on Kwajalein Atoll / 21 NOV 1945 / Korean laborer is being questioned by the judges. I am acting as court interpreter"; Written on lower right corner, "#74".	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.42	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 5 men seated at a table, 3 military officers on one side facing camera, 2 others on opposite side turned slightly away from camera towards other men, man on right is a U.S. officer working as an interpreter; U.S. flag hanging in background. Written on verso in black ink, "Col Oishi is being interrogated at Majuro / Taken 23 Sept 1945"; Written on lower left corner, "#73"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.43	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Interior; 5 men seated at a table, 3 military officers on one side in a row, 2 others sitting on other side at an angle towards each other, man on right is a U.S. officer working as an interpreter; U.S. flag hanging in background; photo was taken at an angle, to the left of the 3 men seated on far side of table. Written on verso in black ink, "Capt. Shiga being interrogated at Majuro / 28 Sept 1945"; Written on lower left corner, "#70"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.44	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Interior; 5 men seated at a table; 3 military officers seated in a row on far side of table facing camera; 2 others seated at an angle slightly towards each other and camera, man on right is a U.S. officer working as an interpreter; U.S. flag in background; one of the 2 men closest to camera has his right arm resting on table, man at left has hands on lap. Written on verso in black and brown ink, "Lt. J.O. Bishop Jr. / 707 Sycamore St. Rocky Mount, NC / (some signature -illegible) Plains, Georgia / Lt. Jack Vickrey 402 W Claredon Drive / Dallas (8) Texas", a line is drawn to divide the text and writes, "Preliminary interrogation at Majuro Atoll, Marshall Island. 28 sept 1945"; Written on lower right corner "#71".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.45	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Exterior; 3 men, 2 are in U.S. navy white sailor uniforms on either side of shorter man in a brown U.S. soldier uniform; posed next to building at right and fence and trash can at left; truck and blurry figures in background. Written on verso in pencil, "2 sailors befriended on destroyer to Hawaii / Visits L M: Don Okubo R: Alfred Bakes"; Stamped on upper left side, "096"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.46	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Man standing in military uniform; saluting; standing in middle of narrow road with wooden fences and shrubs at left and right, trees, wooden house in background.	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.47	photograph		1941-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Man in a military uniform standing with right arm around woman in dress with small print and glasses; car, porch with lattice panels, and tree in background. Written on verso in pencil on lower center, "Don Okubo and mother"; in center, "H16"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.48	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 4 men seated outside, 2 on porch steps looking at the camera, other 2 next to them sitting on a crate or wooden basket; appears they're peeling potatoes; 2 big metal pots in front of them; behind them is a wooden building, 6 brooms leaning against a wooden rail, wooden doors are open showing two screen doors. Written on verso with pencil, "KP duty Don Okubo facing other way James Okita next to Don"; on lower right corner, a stamp reads, "781"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.49	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Group of men in uniforms seated around table with black tablecloth, two U.S. Military commanders holding sheets of paper; both U.S. and Japanese soldiers at table; others standing around in background, one man on the right has a camera and appears to be photographing the moment. Written on verso in black ink, "Signing of surrender of Jaluit Atoll / Rear Admiral Matsuda, Maj. Furuki, Rear Adm. Harvill / Capt. Grow, USNR"; on lower right corner, "#14"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.50	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Group of men in uniforms seated around table; 2 Imperial Japanese officers with white Navy hats, 1 U.S. officer with overseas cap and other U.S. officer with hat with brim looking at papers on table; others in background, two on left with smiles on their faces. Written on verso in black ink, "Capt. Shiga surrendering his command. Mille Atoll, Marshall Isl. aboard U.S. DE"; written on lower right corner, "#6"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.51	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Interior of a ship; U.S. officers and soldiers around a table, others standing in background; 2 Japanese Imperial officers on left side of table; large cylindrical object in center background; at far right soldier leaning against doorway. U.S. officers and Japanese Imperial officers leaning toward each other while negotiating. Written on verso in black ink, "Capt. Shiga asking for clarification on some terms in the instrument of surrender. Lt. Harris who suppose to be a language specialist having difficulty in understanding him. Aboard USDE Levy"; on lower right corner, "#7"	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.52	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Closeup of 3 men seated at table with black tablecloth; Rear Admiral Kamada in uniform on left with round eyeglasses and a cross shoulder strap is a Imperial Japanese Navy officer; 2 others are U.S. officers, Lieutenant D.E. Harris in center is faced towards Imperial Japanese officer, hands enclosed in slight fists with pen in hand and book under hands, man on right has a pen in his mouth while he puts a stack of papers under a handheld appliance; pair of hands visible at far right; 3 men standing in background; 2 pens with stands on table. Written on verso in black ink, "Adm. Kamada is trying to understand what Lt. Harris is saying. Lt. Harris was so nervous that he couldn't keep his hands steady. He has his reliable Japanese-English dictionary under his arm. Sept 6, 1945", Ha is scribbled out before Kamada; on lower right corner, "#31	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.53	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 3 men seated at table with black tablecloth; man in uniform on left with round eyeglasses and a cross shoulder strap is a Imperial Japanese Navy officer; 2 others are U.S. officers and are watching the Imperial Japanese admiral signing the paperwork for surrender as 5 other men stand in background, watch. Far right blurred back of man's head. Written on verso in black ink, "Signing of surrender at Maleoplap aboard USS Wingfield / DE 194 / Sept 6, 1945"; on lower right corner "#29"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.54	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 7 men seated at a table with black tablecloth; 3 Imperial Japanese Navy captains on one side facing camera, next to them are 2 U.S. officers, one is Lt. Harris, another Japanese Navy captain next to them with back of head towards camera; last US soldiers can be seen but blurry profile at far left; 3 men standing in back at right; 2 other men in distance and out of focus at left. Written on back in black ink, "Lt. Harris nervously interpreting to Capt. Shiga what Capt. Grow has said. Capt. Shiga having difficulty understanding his Japanese / Signing of surrender at Mille aboard USS Levy 22Aug1945 / I'm having fun talking to the Capt. Shiga's orderly while Lt. Harris is having a cold sweat"; on lower right corner, "#8"	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.55	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Close up of 2 Imperial Japanese Navy captains and 1 U.S. Lieutenant D.E. Harris seated at a table as an interpreter and presents documents for signatures; man in center is signing a piece of paper that is the instrument of surrender as the other 2 watch across the table; other men in background but faces not visible; man at left has head resting on his right hand. In background, railing of ship and ocean. Written on verso in black ink, "Signing of instrument of surrender by Capt. Shiga, Japanese Imperial Navy aboard US destroyer anchored at Mille lagoon. Aug 27, 1945. They were the first Japanese forces to surrender to Americans"; on lower right corner, "#3".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.56	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Close up of an Imperial Japanese admiral seated at table; others around him cannot really be seen; ocean in background, on deck of a ship; pen and paper in his hands; wearing glasses and turned to the left of photo. Written on verso in black ink, "Rear Admiral Matsuda / Later committed suicide with his pistol aimed at his forehead. Responsible for killing five American prisoners of war. Americans were shot to death by the beaches of Jaluit Atoll, Marshall islands. Admiral Matsuda aboard US Delaware for a preliminary conference in regard to surrounding his command."; on upper right corner, "#16"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.57	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 5 men seated at a table, table has several appliances; 2 have their backs to camera and are Imperial Japanese officers; other 3 are U.S. officers facing camera; man in Navy Sailor uniform standing at left; one man is visible through the doorway in background; 3 other men are blurry in the background. Written on verso with black ink, "Signing of surrender at Maleolap Atoll, Marshall Island aboard US destroyer. / LT. Harris is trying to explain to Adm. Kamada in Japanese but having lot of trouble. / Sept 6, 1945"; on lower right corner, "#25"	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.58	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Group of U.S. and Imperial Japanese military men on deck of ship; one U.S. Military soldier in foreground back to camera saluting others. Unable to see faces of others. About 4 Imperial Japanese soldiers, at right, in distance, standing on deck while 3 other Imperial Japanese soldiers wait to climb the ladder to deck; U.S. soldiers on higher part of ship on left side. Typewritten on verso, "These boys from the Japanese army came in full uniform. Capt. Furukawa follows Mieno who is saluting". Written below, "We return Lt. Col Mieno's salute"; in center is "3" circled and written in pencil.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.59	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Rear Admiral Kamada, in uniform with glasses and white gloves and a stick in his left hand, walking towards camera on deck of ship; U.S. officer walk directly behind Adm. Kamada; another Imperial Japanese soldier a little further behind. Written on verso in black ink, "Arrival of Rear Adm. Kamada to sign the surrender at Maleolap Atoll / Sept 6, 1945"; on lower right corner, "#23"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.60	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 4 men, 2 walking down stairs; one man behind them at left another in white Navy Sailor's uniform at right; 2 Imperial Japanese officers going down the stairs with chain link handlebars, have heads down, as walking down stairs; There are U.S. soldiers and officers around them on the ship and a doorway to the far upper left. Written on verso in black and white, "Signing of surrender at Maloelap" and is underlined, "Adm. Kamoda and his staff returning to their island after they have finished with signing of instrument of surrender"; on lower right corner is "#32"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.61	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Men on deck of ship; 6 men in a group; 3 U.S. officers and 3 Imperial Japanese officers, one man with white shirt has back to camera and others are facing him; ocean on background at right. Written on verso in black ink, "Arrival of Capt. Shiga and his staff. Aboard US destroyer. They were being introduced to Capt. H.B. Grow who has represented Rear Adm. Harrill. / Japanese officer with the moustache (sic) is Lt. Comdr. Tokuno"; on lower right corner is "#2"	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.62	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 9 Military officers seated at long table. Papers, books, hats, cigarettes, cups, and water pitcher on table; one man is seated at head of table and facing camera, hands clasped together; other men are seated and standing around the table; 3 portholes in background; on lower center right, one Japanese-American soldier sits in a slouched position with his hands on face, looking away from camera. Written on verso in black ink, "Aboard Tillman / Sep 3 1945 / James Shigeta", followed with a typewritten note, "This was our preliminary conference we had with the Japanese officers from Yap. Lighting a cigarette is Lt. Col. M. Mieno who was the ranking Japanese officer (sic) representing the (sic) Imperial Army of Japan stationed on Yap. Harry Okada sits in the back taking it easy", under typewritten note is a pencil written note, "same class as Don Okubo same training"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.63	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 3 men standing together on ship; All 3 men are in uniform wearing military caps; one with back to camera carrying a black fabric or robes on his right arm, is the orderly for Imperial Japanese Captain, Shiga; the other two are U.S. Military soldiers looking down at something. Written on verso in black ink, "Getting acquainted with Captain Shiga's orderly aboard US Delaware"; on lower right corner, "#11"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.64	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 3 men who appear to be Imperial Japanese soldiers on a small boat in water next to a large ship; 2 men seated in back; one man standing with white t-shirt hands behind his back and looking at the camera; photo appears to be taken from a ship. Written on verso in black ink, "Japanese fishing boat bringing a load of Japanese swords / Wotje Atoll, Marshall Island"; on lower right corner is "#42"	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.65	photograph		1946	1 photographic print: b&w; 2 men both in U.S. military uniforms; Admiral Spruance, Commander-in-Chief of the US Pacific Fleet, on left, has 4 star rank insignia and is pinning a ribbon onto the shirt of Technical Sergeant Don Okubo. The article on back from the Hawaii Herald writes about Okubo receiving the Bronze medal. On verso, stamped reads, "Official US Navy photo", handwritten, "#13 / 13 -5", handwritten in red pencil, "Return to Isokane". On lower right corner, "#98". In middle of writing, xerox of an article from The Hawaii Herald glued on with the title, "NAVY AWARDS MEDAL TO AJA", written in pencil by "PAGE TWO" on article reads, "Don Okubo receives Bronze Star from Admiral Spruance / Taken Jan 10, 1946"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.66	photograph		1944	1 photographic print: b&w photograph of 11 Military Intelligence Service and 1st Marine Division soldiers. 6 are kneeling on the ground, 2 in front each holding a corner of a Japanese flag with Japanese written all over it; 5 other men are standing in the back; 4 men are wearing hats; one man standing in back smoking a cigarette. Written on verso, "Don Okubo #39", written on paper in black ink taped to verso, "Captured Japanese flag", under it typed, "#39-1 kneeling - front row, / L-R three orientals were: Ed Fujimori, Hisashi Kubota, Don Okubo", and under that is written in black ink, "After the U.S. Maine invasion of Delelin, Caroline Islands / September 1944 - Nisei linguists attached to 1st Maine Division".	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.67	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Photograph of man kneeling holding rifle across chest. No shirt, hard hat and glasses; wearing ring on watch on right hand; clothes and tarp hanging in background. Written on verso in pencil, "Palau - Tony Sunamoto/Calif"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.68	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Man in military uniform unbuttoned half way, carrying hard hat in his left hand; smiling at camera; from thighs and up; 2 jeeps in background. Written on verso in black ink, "My palsy walsy Kubota 'Brain Trust' of our group." and in pencil, Hisashi Kubota of Hawaii"; lower right corner, "#94"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.69	photograph		1938-1950	1 photographic print: b&w; 8 soldiers in military uniforms and military overseas hats; 4 kneeling and 4 others standing behind them; second from left in front row and man at far right wearing glasses; bushes/plants in background.	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.70	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; 12 people; front row four men kneeling, wearing soldier's uniforms, second from right has a little boy seated on knee; seven others standing in back; back row: man at far left in plain clothes, woman next in floral dress with glasses, two men in soldier's uniform next to her; at far right a woman in black dress with white trim; in background plants/bushes; all the soldiers have their names signed over their pictures; On recto are signatures of the soldiers, front row, L-R, "Frederick Hirano, Nobuo Furuiye, Tadachi Ogawa, Kaoru Yagi" and in back row, L-R, "Don S. Okubo, Henry Yokoyama, T.J. Shigeta"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.71	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Imperial Japanese soldiers marching in formation from left side of photograph; at far left a US navy soldier in white uniform with rifle at side stands watching them walk past; gravel and dirt road; in background on right are 3 barrels stacked on top of each other Written on verso, "Maloelap Atoll Flag raising ceremony"; on lower right corner, "#90"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.72	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print, 12 photographs: b&w; 1st row: L= Rectangular stone structure in center of vegetation, palm tree at right; M= Line of men hiking up rocky path, tents at side and in back; R= Stone structure, seems to be falling apart, two jeeps, men at right. 2nd row: L= Stone building falling apart, trash/debris everywhere; M= Rocky trail with sloping sides, some tree branch remains; R= Roadway with person walking towards crumbling stone structure, two poles in distance. 3rd row: L= Runway/landing area with three helicopters, one plane, one jeep; M= Rocky, desolate area, small trail with two people on it, dead trees; R= Piles of rocks in middle of sloping hills. 4th row: L= Man standing holding a flag on top of tan; M= Side of rocky hill(?) with small cave opening, barrels and parts of wagons; R= Barrier made from wood with stick with Japanese characters on it, pole bending to side at left. Written on back, "Taken on Pelelin, Palau Deformed Sector of the 'Bloody Nose Ridge", on lower right corner, "#93"	Gift of Don S. Okubo

95.85.73	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; Three men standing together; Cap. H.B. Grow at left with hat with brim in U.S. Officer military uniform; Don S. Okubo in center has back to camera; Admiral Kamada at right in Imperial Japanese military uniform and white gloves; others in background, ocean and shoreline in the distance.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.74	photograph		1944	1 photographic print: b&w; Two men, both not wearing shirts; arms around each other; tents, others, jeeps in background; man on left has pants rolled up to knees, other man has long pants, helmet, and glasses; frame is gold; paper backing with nails and metal wires for hanging; glass over photo. Written on verso, "Don Okubo- 25 yrs old Tony Sunamoto; Lower back: 18.0. "Your pal, Ta tonou(?) Sunamoto Sept. 14, 1944."	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.75	photograph		1942-1945	1 photographic print: b&w; framed; Five U.S. soldiers; four Asian, one Caucasian; standing in a row on rocks and gravelly surface, some stone structures in background; at left man wearing dark glasses and hands on hips; Asian man with helmet, touching bottom of shorts leg; Asian man with helmet and hands on hips; Asian man at far right with helmet; silver frame, glass over photo. On lower right corner, "#19.0"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.76	photograph		1945	1 photographic print: b&w; framed; In center foreground 2 men sit facing each other, one has his back to the camera, the other faces the camera appears to be in the middle of conversation and wears a uniform with "Master Sergeant stripes". 7 men in similar uniform sit at a long table in the background. One man in white sailor uniform stands behind the 7 men at the table. Other men sit along the right side of the picture. Photo is set in silver painted wooden frame, paper backing with nails and metal wires for hanging, and glass over photo. Inscription on back: "Marshall Isl. / Kwajalein Atoll / War Criminal Trial / Nov. 21, 1945 / Warrant Officer Manako". White piece of paper taped to back over inscription: "#39-2 Soldier in Master Sergeant's stripes: Don Okubo"	Gift of Don S. Okubo
95.85.77	document	Don S. Okubo	1942-1945	A poem, written in Japanese with blue ink, on thin tan parchment paper.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.1	photograph			1 b&w photograph of Don Okubo with his rifle (without his shirt) posing in a camp area in the Pacific.	Gift of Don S. Okubo

2005.153.2A	certificate	Silver Star Award Certificate	2001	2 medium size pieces of certificates in an Awards Certificate diploma binder presenting and awarding Don S. Okubo a Silver Star on July 17, 2001. The vinyl binder is green with an emblem of the United States Department of the Army on the cover. The two papers award Don Okubo by the United States president for the Silver Star for his gallantry in the Marshall Islands through prevailing Rear Admiral Hamada, of the Japanese Imperial Army, to surrender.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.2B	photograph	Silver star medal and ribbons		A colored picture of the Silver star medal and ribbons as presented during award ceremony to Don Okubo on July 17, 2001, upgraded from Bronze Star medal	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.3	scrapbook	Don Okubo's scrapbook	1943	A three ring binder with multi colored picture of the continental United States with seven various faces using telephones to communicate. Binder holds multiple documents on Don Okubo's enlistment history and other information pertaining to his time in the Military Intelligence Service. Don S. Okubo has his latest upgraded award, Bronze Star to Silver Star on July 17th, 2001. Going as far back as 1943, when he was ordered for induction. Don has copies of his activities from induction through 2001. One item showcases the presentation of the Bronze Star Medal to Okubo by the Secretary of the Navy.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.4	certificate	Honorable Discharge	1937-1942	Honorable Discharge document for Don S. Okubo on Jan. 16, 1946 in Honolulu, Oahu, HI; lists military history; On back of the discharge document is Don Okubo's enlisted record and report of separation, Honorable Discharge. Copies of both documents made by the Blueprint Co., Honolulu, HI, 9-20-46. Includes Description of Resident, Registration Certificate, and McKinley High School identification card.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.5	certificate	Registration Certificate		A registration certificate issued to Don S. Okubo upon registering with the selective service on Oct. 21, 1940.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.6	card, identification	Identification Card		An identification card issued by McKinley High School in 1937 to Shigeru Okubo as a senior student. On reverse side; in case of accident notification name and address.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.7	photograph			A small 2 1/2" x 2 1/2" b&w photograph of Don S. Okubo in late 20's.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.8	dictionary	The American Vest Pocket Dictionary		A black soft cover dictionary called "The American Vest Pocket Dictionary". Published by Random House, N.Y., N.Y. in 1956. Dictionary carried by Sgt. Don S. Okubo in WWII.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.9	Bible	The New Testament of Our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ		A dark brown soft cover Bible called, "New Testament" of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, with total of 674 pages. Bible is similar with ID# 2005.153.10 except these were issued primarily to American GI's with Presideent Roosevelt's urging to read the Bible.	Gift of Don S. Okubo

2005.153.10	medal	Good Conduct Medal	1944	A bronze Medal with red ribbon with 3 white stripes on both edges of ribbon called the Good Conduct Medal awarded to Sgt. Don S. Okubo in 1943. The words on the bronze reads, "EFFECIENCY, HONOR, FIDELITY". Medal is located in bronze medal case.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.11	ribbon	Good Conduct Ribbon		Good Conduct Ribbon to be worn on dress outfit, over the left breast pocket by GI. Good conduct medal and ribbon have six white stripes on a red background. Located in Bronze Medal case.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.12	medal	Bronze Star	1944	Sgt. Don S. Okubo, MIS, awarded the bronze star medal in the Pacific. Medal is placed in a rectangular black box that is labeled, "BRONZE STAR MEDAL". It has a small star in middle within the large star; A red ribbon with white lines outlining it and blue stripe outlined by white in the middle are in vertical position.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.13	ribbon	Bronze Star Ribbon		A Bronze Star ribbon awarded to Sgt. Don S. Okubo when he received the Bronze Star medal. Ribbon has four white stripes and one blue stripe down the middle. Located in Bronze medal case.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.14	ribbon	USA/Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon		Sgt. Don S. Okubo was awarded the USA/Pacific-Asiatic ribbons for services outside the U.S. Located in Bronze medal case.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.15	medal	Silver Star Medal		Silver Star medal and ribbon awarded to Sgt. Don Okubo on July 17, 2001. After the feats and accomplishments were reviewed after WWII, Sgt. Don Okubo's Bronze Star award was upgraded to the Silver Star and awarded to Sgt. Okubo on July 17, 2001.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.16	handkerchief			An oversized fabric handkerchief drawn and hand painted, given to Don Okubo in the Marshall Islands as a gift. The design is of a military helmet on top of the rising sun with cherry blossoms and two swords emerging from the sun. Signed by "Shiobara."	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.17	handkerchief			An oversized fabric handkerchief, with written Japanese characters at top and a lady decorated with red flowers with the case of a knife tucked in her breast area and a knife or short sword stuck in the tatami to the left of the lady.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.18	handkerchief			An oversized fabric handkerchief with a man and a woman in kimono's and the woman holding a parasol over her right shoulder. A bridge is on right side and castles with flower branch on left side. Painting is signed by "Funaki."	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.19	handkerchief			An oversized fabric handkerchief painted with Japan's rising sun motif with the map of the Japanese Islands superimposed on the sun. At the center top is the inscription, "In Commemoration of the 1945 Rescue of the Marshall Islands."	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.20	handkerchief			A Japanese woman in kimono with a large obi and holding a large spear in her right hand.	Gift of Don S. Okubo
2005.153.21	handkerchief			An oversized handkerchief hand painted with a Japanese lady in a kimono sitting behind a small table, smoking tobacco in a long pipe. Small table has a tea kettle and a small container. Signed by Fasimoto.	Gift of Don S. Okubo